CASTS ARE NAMED FOR PLAYERS' NEXT PRODUCTION, ON NOV. 21

Announcement was made yesterday of the casts for the three plays which will be presented Friday evening, Nov. 21 by the Village Players at the Playhouse.

The "Kiddie Lord," which will be the curtain raiser, will be cast as follows:
 Donald T. Stanton as Lord
 Betty Shaffner as Lady
 Fred Dickinson as Vale
 Directed by Elizabeth Penny, assisted by Beulah Lincoln.

Roles to "The Liar and the Unicorn," by Beulah Hughes, will be taken as follows:
 Winifred Ashton Barbara Withe
 Carolee Lucas John B. Saunders
 Chester Collins Harold B. Shuart
 Club attendant Robert Titlowan
 Directed by Willie Overton Forreth, assisted by Mary Alice Grindley.

The following cast was announced for "The Heart of Scary," by J. J. Bell, the "theory" play of this program:
 Magworth Robert Clayton
 Charles J. Shain
 Butler Walter T. Elliott
 Landlord Loren Stauch
 Arthur Halgren
 Traveller John E. Brown
 This play is being directed by G. E. Eason Olson, assisted by John E. Edgerton.

Because of the popularity of "After Glow" a supper dance after the performances, the affair will be held again at the conclusion of this program.

EXCHANGITES HEAR PASTOR

Intimate word pictures of 10 European countries, including Palestine, Italy, and Egypt, were given Tuesday noon by Rev. W. S. C. Fellow, pastor of the Royal Oak Methodist church, before the Birmingham Exchange Club. Rev. Fellow spent three months abroad last summer, one month of which was lived in the native Mohammedan quarter of Jerusalem.

The present industrial depression in world-wide scope, stated Rev. Fellow, France and Italy are less affected than other countries, he said, because France is rebuilding her war-ravaged towns, and Italy is putting through great governmental projects, under the iron rule of Mussolini.

MR. and Mrs. Augustus O'Dell entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Whelden, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morley, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Mrs. Manly D. Davis, and Mr. Ralph L. Polk at dinner in their home Saturday evening. 31

MR. and Mrs. Carleton Fox, of Riverside drive, are now at week-end in Detroit, at the Book-Cadillac Hotel. 31

Mrs. Beverly Jones, of the Wilmington Terrace, spent the week-end in Chicago. Mrs. Jones attended a football game.

Mrs. L. L. Temperer and children of Poppleton avenue, will attend the weekend with Mrs. Temperer's mother at Marion, Ind.

Mrs. Paul L. McCreary, of Wilmington avenue, is expected home this week-end after having spent a fortnight in New York City.

Mrs. Fred S. Ross and her daughter, Miss Margaret, of Wil-
