SOME AMUSEMENT has been given the American public by the news that a lone vote registered in a New York precinct cost the taxpayers of that city $1,127.00.5. This vote, on the surface, appears have cost to much—but what would have been, the cost if there were no popular government, and a mionarch ruled the land? Varley more than $1,127.00.—las your history will prove.

NORMAN C. One, Orkland County prosecutor, has allowed the word up go out that he may, or may not, call a grand jury investigation of the County's governmental household. He'd better make up his mind—for soon his term will expire.

THE WHITE HOUSE LAUNDRY is being made over to more office space. Isn't that a dirty shame!
