REHEARSALS HELD FOR ANNUAL SHOW

Washington Group Plans For Minstrel At Baldwin December 11

Daily rehearsals and practice sessions are being held by the Baldwin High School Senior Washington Group in preparation for the public presentation of their annual minstrel show to be shown in the Baldwin high school auditorium Thursday evening, Dec. 11. The title of the minstrel is "It's a Great Life."

According to Ruth Hull, general supervisor of the production, the group will offer several novelties and surprise numbers. There will be several drills, special and solo dances by boy and girl group members, according to Miss Frances Stephenson girls' physical educational director of Baldwin high school, who will direct the dancing parts. Mac Brumsted, vocal music instructor of Baldwin high school, will direct the singing parts of the production.

At the meeting of the Senior Washington group held in the school Monday evening the amount of credit that will be given for participation in the show to the members who take part was discussed. Tickets will be placed on sale by the group next Monday.

for any considerable gain, and was forced to punt time and again.

During the second quarter the Blue and Gray were able to show a little better attack, but did not succeed in scoring. Baldwin, on the other hand, drove down the field again for 60 yards to score, Berensford carrying the ball over and making the score 19-0. Shortly before the end of the half, Baldwin substituted their second team.

Opening the second half with their starting lineup, Baldwin received the kick off and drove down the field for their final score. Cranbrook, putting up a game fight, carried the ball from their 20 yard line to the opponents' 50 yard line, but there were held for downs. In the next few moments, frequent substitutions were made in the Baldwin team; so that the final period opened with a second team on the field. Here Cranbrook found little opposition, and driving down the field through the darkness they carried the ball over, Little scoring from the 2-yard line, Beaudette accounted for an extra point. After holding Birmingham for downs, Cranbrook again marched to attack, and advancing down the field with large gains, were on the verge of a second touchdown when the game was called on account of darkness.

The lineup:

DEPRESSION?

Every one's counting a panic.
 Every one's staging the blues,
 Still whenever you go to a picture show,
 You stand—till they're through with the show.
 The country's going to beddition,
 We'll have bread lines before we have moon—
 But try to buy seats for a football game
 And see what you get for your "dough."
 A job simply cannot be bought,
 We're going to shove—that's decided,
 Or we'll fall in our tracks and we'll lay—
 But when Starbuck fights—just try to get in
 And you'll see what "hard times" we've got.
 The gov-ern-ment's got to do something,
 Or we'll fall in our tracks and we'll lay—
 Yet the lady, by gosh, who does up our wash
 Brings it back in a nice new couple.
 So I think all this talk of a panic,
 Of the country about to go "blowy,"
 Between you and me, and the old apple tree,
 Is a lot of plain old-fashioned "booby."
