

OAKLAND COUNTY NEWS

Chief of Police Frank W. Irons of Berkley, who returned Friday with a party of friends from Newberry after a week of deer hunting, brought back an eight-point, 200-pound buck, the largest caught by 16 members of the Newberry Hunt club. Irons was awarded a membership in the club for getting the first deer as well as the largest. He shot the buck the first day of the season.

Henry Gebhardt of Oxford road, Berkley; Carl Laidman of Detroit and William Knight of Birmingham, who accompanied the chief, also got a buck apiece. Each of the sixteen members of the club had a successful trip, Irons said.

A vacant house at 1116 Englewood avenue, Royal Oak, owned by John Arnold, 4100 Rochester road, was destroyed by a fire of unknown origin shortly after midnight Friday. The fire had gained considerable start before it was covered and firemen were unable to gain control.

The alarm was sent to police headquarters by a man who discovered the flames as he passed the house. Twelve successive alarms registered on the police tape, ten of them after apparatus from headquarters, fire station had been sent to the box.

Clarence H. Elliott, Oak Park village manager, was dismissed from office Thursday by the village commission on the grounds of inefficiency. President Silas M. Dougherty demanded Elliott's immediate dismissal, which was unanimously approved by the commission.

Horace Woolcock, 333 Eason avenue, Highland Park, receiving and paying teller at the American State Bank of Highland Park, was appointed to succeed Elliott. He assumed his new duties this morning after immediately resigning as an employee of the bank.

Old Man Winter is due any day and City Manager Raymond J. Whitney has planned five skating rinks for Royal Oak which will be banked and flooded as soon as the ground freezes. There will be no other rinks, due to the expense in flooding and maintaining them, Mr. Whitney said. The rinks will be located at Cass field, Oak Ridge school and near the Starr, Parker and Benjamin Franklin schools.

Dr. Laurence M. Gould, familiarly known as "Larry," who was second in command of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, will give his lecture, "With Byrd to the Bottom of the World," illustrated with motion pictures and colored slides, in the Baldwin High School auditorium Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 8 p. m. under the auspices of the Birmingham District Committee, Boy Scouts of America.

sider the adoption of a new city charter, Dec. 15, at the regular election. The charter was drafted after lengthy study and the assistance of Harold D. Smith of the Michigan Municipal League, by the charter commission. The village charter of South Lyon was adopted five years ago.

James S. Mitchell, a farmer living north of Holly, lost 650 bushels of seed corn last week when fire destroyed the building in which it was stored. Many farmers in the vicinity who had depended upon Mr. Mitchell's supply will have to purchase their seed corn from other sources as a result of the blaze, it is expected. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

The government will study drug store methods. Perhaps some day we will have a chief soda-jerker in the cabinet.

CAGERS BEGIN EARLY TRIALS

A new wrinkle has been cast into the basketball fortunes of the boys trying out for the sport at the Baldwin high school with the innovation by Coach Franklyn Whitney of morning practice sessions. Last Friday in order to let the squad attend the football game with Cranbrook, practice was called off and the squad had to report Saturday morning at 9 a. m. Another early session is in prospect for the team this week when the squad has practice at the Baldwin high school gymnasium tomorrow morning.

BUSINESS MEN of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills, who have offices in Detroit, like to engage the services of The Eccentric's printing department for stationery, forms, or direct mail pieces. The Eccentric does much of such work—and it is very conveniently located for its friends to visit in order to get GOOD PRINTING, QUICKLY DONE, at a REASONABLE COST.

Dependable When the services of a funeral director are needed, it is essential that he be dependable in every way, and to any degree. This is of vital importance, and unless he merits one's full confidence, there is a possibility of dissatisfaction.

Being progressive, we have made it a policy to keep in touch with each new development in our profession.

IF THEY COULD BE THANKFUL THEN

Beset by hostile savages, surrounded by bleak wildernesses, primitively housed, the fathers of New England looked upon life and found it so good that they set aside a day of giving Thanks.

If they could find thankfulness amidst such circumstances, how much more should we be able to rejoice in the blessings which attend our life today. It is our hope that you, like we, are astonished at the long list of things for which we are thankful this year.
