Who Pays, And Pays . . ?

Oakland County, during the period of this coming winter when taxes are again levied for the privilege of living in this land of ours, will seek to collect the hugi total of $2.3,86.460.00. This amount of mazuma will be distributed to the stare, county, and school districts; it's a helluvalotta money, Folkstiy ou know what we mean—and there's no use in utterin' too much complainin' about it, either, if you know what we mean—and there's no use in utterin' too much complainin' about it, either, it was to be complained to the stare, county, and school districts; it's a helluvalotta money, Folksti's you know what we mean—and there's no use in utterin' too much complainin' about it, either, it was to be complained to the start of the proposed U. of M. vs. Detroit University for the proposed

People's wearing apparel, means of transportation, reddite recipes, sports and other things, may change means to time, but certain fundamental tradiens and customs remain for centuries. Briefly put, the are few elemental ways of being either good bad; these elementals of course, have their ramiations, but on the whole, by and large, human turier requires a long time to effect noticeable mage.

Michigan Republicans refused to argue, in the recent campaign, the matter of prohibition. Governor Green outly reiterated that "prohibition is not an issue." Personally, we'd like to have the Governor define the word 'issue." In the immanium, hay we suggest our own interpretation of "political issue." A political "issue," then, is something or other who a political randidate may discuss without danger to his position before the voters, before election.

Value Of Poverty

The the matter of national morals. Most people living today are of the belief that their forestables in this country were saints—far from acquitting themselves as many do today. But the folks of several generations ago had their trails and tribustation—ven if they lacked automobiles, airplanes, talkies, and cross-word puzzles.

Here are a few items culled from a Massachusetts court docket of the virtage of 1646:

Henry Walton fined for saying he would as leave are a dog bark as to hear Reverend Cobbell prach.
John Studley fined for stealing his master's ox and selling it to him.

Thomas Gray of Marbehead whipped for being overseen in drink.

Man-Making We are all blind until we see
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making, if
It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilded goes?
In vain we build the work, unless
The builder also, grows.
