liberal dose of disinfectant again restored the box to usability. In other words, wrapped packages and addressed, and in the case of parcel post packages, furnished with a return address. These frequently are attempts to get things through the mails which are forbidden by entry.

DR. WILLIAM LLOYD KEMP The appointment of Dr. Kemp as Village Health Officer to succeed Dr. A. W. Newitt, whose resignation is effective, Oct. 31, was announced Monday by the Village Commission. Dr. Kemp has been a resident of Birmingham for four years and is a specialist in the medical treatment of children. He is married, has three children and lives at 815 Oakland avenue.

men have senses of humor, undeveloped in some cases, and unfortunately in some cases, of a practical turn. But of garbage, dead mice, a snake, and several days' rain, it was not until the department had not received a raise in salary during the past eight or 10 years.

with equally discouraging suggestions that many other colleagues had made a practice of getting out of the same bush or out of the same bush before they were out of the bush.

The popularity of "The Haig" as a golf writer, remains undimmed. C. M. Ritchie, manager of the Birmingham branch of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., received a complaint Friday from a Birmingham resident who said that he was unable to get in communication with the Birmingham Golf Club.

Last week, Mr. Louis Hascall took a bowling ball in his hands for the first time since Christmas Eve, 1929. In his first game, he bowled 138 against Mr. Russell Chapman, proprietor of the Birmingham Recreation. He felt that Mr. Chapman was not trying his best and said so. In the second game, Mr. Chapman bowled 205 and Mr. Hascall bowled 269, one of the best scores rolled in the Birmingham in many months, this Wanderer observes.

The federal fly swatter has performed faithful and efficient service in the cause of the greater comfort of postal employees. Wanderer into the postoffice observes. Not that the postoffice is free of flies, but the condition of the swatter itself is tantamount to many battles, many victories, and many sudden deaths. Lacking in frame, its action has been swift, it has the appearance of a total wreck, yet in the hands of T. A. Horing, assistant postmaster, it is still a powerful weapon, and wreaks destruction still among many of the insects.

When you meet a person who is literally on a mission, you are a spirit of crusading for a cause, you are made to feel the need of action, or at least appreciating the cause. That's why every member of the Birmingham Rotary club has been so impressed by the address of Secretary of State.

Several hundred county residents were among those present. The usual price was extended to the several candidates by Clyde Underwood, chairman of the county Republican committee. Floyd Bales, chief clerk, presided over the meeting in the Masonic Temple. He did his task well. Seymour Person, candidate for Congress, talked for 15 minutes about the vague notion he is developing for the consideration of the human equation. Mr. Bracker closed the speeches by summing up his platform for "the advancement of Republican traditions and citizenship" in Michigan. He presented his broad shoulders to the Wanderer when he was asked, "well, how are you surviving the ordeal?" and replied, "Fine. Haven't fallen away a bit. Just the same, Oakland County Republicans are watching their Democratic friends very, very closely."

Children's Day IS Everyday Here

The generation of tomorrow's elders is being served at Shanin's as you would want them to be served. You can well realize that these children might suffer from influences where a relapse of character existed. But at Shanin's the influence is wholesome, above-board and just as you would want it to be. Children come and go from Shanin's radiant and friendly. It is their one meeting place outside of school. That is why everyday is children's day at Shanin's.
