Join in the New Game "Plant Identification"

Originated by the Wangberg Gardens for Your Benefit.

Home Owners and Garden Enthusiasts: Do you know your shrubs and evergreens? Can you call them by their proper name? Do you care to earn a shrub by trying? Do you like new games?

If you do—then drive down to our nursery and try your hand at identifying some shrubs and evergreens we have set out in a plot for the sport of "Plant Identification."

To the person guessing 8 out of 12 plants and naming them correctly we will give one Honey-suckle bush, 4 to 5 feet high FREE!

The only ones exempt are local gardeners and landscape men, although we shall be glad to have them try their hand.

Plants will be numbered. We'll furnish you a pad and pencil. So drive down, and join in the fun. Stay as long as you wish. Bring your Garden Clubs and join in the game of "Plant Identification."

Our Nursery is on SOUTHFIELD ROAD
Across from Acacia Park Cemetery
