Believing—

That every person needs variety in his life.
That monotony is killing.
That Sunday should be "different."
That a spiritual tonic on Sunday makes the work of the other six days more effective and pleasant.
That the moral teachings of the church are an inspiration as well as a help to right living.
That a town without churches is no fit place to live.
That it takes people to make a church.

We, therefore, are pleased to welcome you to our services.
