Autumn Prompts Changes Within Doors

A few new pieces, perchance a rug or two, in their appropriate settings, seem to take away the sameness of a home, seem to make one say, anew, "there's no place like home." Let us show you . . .

CHESTS OF DRAWERS

of mahogany, cherry, maple, and walnut. They are extremely useful, in addition to their beauty.

DROP LEAF TABLES

of pine, cherry, walnut, mahogany, and that favorite of old days and nowadays . . . maple.

CHAIRS

in sets for the dining room, of the above mentioned woods, excepting cherry.

MIRRORS

that will cause you to reflect on their beauty. Varying sizes in oval and oblong shapes. The wood frames are of three shades of mahogany, walnut and oak.

CANADIAN HOOKED RUGS

seventy-eight of them, have just been released from Customs and are now on their way here. Come in, see them.

BACK FROM VACATIONING

means immediate thought of beauty needs. And most important of this "post-vacation" beauty work is, of course, attention to your scalp and hair. —permanent waving, and coloring, will aid in restoring the natural beauty . . . and so prepare you for the coming formal season.

For appointment, telephone 670. The Powder Puff Beauty Salon. Here you will find an expert in hair-dressing.
