

SOCIETY

MISS Nancy Huyette, of Chelm-sleigh, is hastening to her room-mate at the University of Wisconsin, Miss Ellen Meyers, of Fond du Lac, Wis., this week. Miss Meyers arrived Tuesday morning and was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Miss Huyette in her home.

Miss Huyette and Miss Meyers plan to leave by motor for Madison tomorrow to resume their college studies.

Mrs. Charles M. Ayer, of Washington, D. C., who was the house-guest of Mrs. Robert Traub, of Long Lake road, for a week, departed for her home Sunday evening.

Sixteen guests were entertained at "Whysall" Tuesday by Mrs. John T. Shaw at a dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin will occupy their new home on Lone Pine road in the near future.

A BRIDGE luncheon for members and their guests will be given at the Oakland Hills Country Club next Wednesday.

CHURCH AUXILIARY MEETING PLANNED

200 Women Expected To Attend Conference At Christ Church, Sept. 29.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church are making plans and forming committees for the entertainment of the 200 women expected Sept. 29 for the District meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Chairman and assistant chairman for the day will be Mrs. W. D. Thompson and Mrs. Burt McDonald. Mrs. Walter G. Marley will be in charge of the luncheon committee, and Mrs. Frank Bromley will arrange the music, which will consist of a program given by William Hill Miner at the organ and the carillon. The occasion for the music is St. Michael and All Angels' Day, which will be observed that day.

A partial list of hostesses announced by Mrs. Thompson, is as follows: Mrs. Samuel S. Marquis, Mrs. W. G. Harry, Mrs. George Strelinger, Miss Sarah Sly, Mrs. Max Brock, Mrs. J. J. Shaw, Mrs. J. H. Muzny, Mrs. Robert Traub, and Mrs. Ralph Stone.

These women, together with others to be named Tuesday, will receive the visitors throughout the morning. Corporate Communion service will be held at 11:30

IMPROVEMENT GROUP ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

At a recent meeting of the Countrywide Improvement Association, Mrs. D. Wylie Ball, of Elm street, was elected corresponding secretary of the organization. Other officers elected were Mrs. Ernest Fenker, vice president, Mrs. C. W. Gregory, president, Mrs. E. S. Gallender, recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. Morley, auditor, and Mrs. Graston Fenker, custodian.

GOLF

The "Worst" ball foursome in the Bloomfield Hills Country Club attracted about 44 men Saturday. The winning team, scoring 99-21-76, was composed of F. L. Klingensmith, L. D. Halsted, H. A. Fitzgerald, and H. A. O'Dell.

Mrs. Olin Finney is the woman club champion of Oakland Hills as a result of having defeated Mrs. J. H. DeVisser in the final last weekend. The winner of the consolation cup in the championship flight is Mrs. S. M. Newton. Winners, runners-up, and consolation cup winners respectively in the other four flights are as follows: Class B: Mrs. J. W. Hill, Mrs. L. J. Mathewson, and Mrs. E. H. Rollins; class C: Miss Adele Dank, Mrs. R. Fitzgerald, consolation winner not yet determined; class D: Mrs. R. C. Lewis, Mrs. K. A. Moore, and Mrs. C. A. Jessup; class E: Mrs. D. E. Ralston, Mrs. A. Sweeney, and Mrs. T. A. Hagg.

Visitors to our Store in the North—We Thank You

It was with supreme pleasure that we greeted the many persons who visited our Summer Store at Mullet Lake.

The friendliness evidenced by your northland visit did our hearts good, made us even more sincere in our wish to meet with the continued approval of those who buy gifts, and books, and stationery.

And now that the autumn is here, and the little octagon-shaped shop is closed for another season, we would like again, to thank every one of you.

The club champion of Oakland Hills will be determined this week, when Paul Munn and A. J. Buell will meet in the finals to contest the title. In the semifinals played during the past week, Mr. Munn defeated David G. Fitch, six and five; and Mr. Buell defeated A. S. Hudson, two and one.

Results in class B are as follows: S. M. Richardson defeated W. B. Hudson, four and two; E. T. Coombs defeated C. E. Perry, two and one; D. C. Mills defeated D. F. Costello, three and two; R. B. Criddle defeated R. F. Birchard, four and three.

In class C: R. L. Shugg defeated R. H. Hyde, one up on 19 holes; A. R. Fors defeated O. L. Winslow, seven and six; Walter Gebka defeated Dr. E. B. Swift, four and three; and F. H. Harvey defeated L. J. Mathewson, one up.

In class D: Dolph Taylor defeated O. E. Schley, two up.

An interesting event at the Oakland Hills Country Club last week-end was the district father and son, mother and daughter, two-ball foursomes. The age maximum for the younger generation was 16 years, and many of our enthusiastic junior district golfers, with their mothers or fathers, took part.

Results of the Boys' division were as follows: first flight; two boys, Russell Dobson, Jr., and his father, of Barton Hills, 89; first low net, Lloyd Marks, and his father, L. P. Marks, of Clinton Valley, 92-14-78; second low net, Bill Tuckman and his mother, Mrs. L. B. Witting, of Birch Hill, 97-18-79; second flight; low gross, Dennis G. Shepherd and his father, 100; first low net, Stanley Hance and J. W. Strain, 108-34-74; second low net, John Barry, Jr., and his father, 102-26-76.

In the Girls' division, Betty Hutchinson and her father, of Dearborn, won first low gross, with 88. First low net was won by Betty Connor and her mother, Mrs. Addison Connor, of the Detroit Golf Club, 95-18-82; and second low net by Louise Roth and her mother, of Dearborn, with 98-14-84. In the second flight, Carolyn Smith and her father had the low gross score of 106. Low net winners were Betty Hance and her mother, with 104-34-83, and Louise Roth and her mother, with 108-20-88.

A nine-hole flight was included in the program for the very young players and their parents. In this event, little Mary McKie and her mother, Mrs. W. B. Cameron, of Washington, won first low gross honors with their score of 58. Those who turned in the best net scores were Donald May and his father, 62-16-46; and Jean Van Wormer, and her mother, Mrs. E. M. May, of Birmingham, with 61-11-50.

Competing for the club championship of Forest Lake, three members have reached the semifinals, while the fourth will be determined this week. Semifinal round results follow: C. T. Salisbury defeated H. H. Knapper, two and one; T. C. MacDonald defeated E. F. Roberts, three and two; and A. H. Moorman defeated W. T. Higbie, one up. The second round matches were C. C. Proctor and E. C. Sullivan at this date played.

First round matches in the club championship of Orchard Lake were played last week and during the early part of this. A. P. Nauman defeated Leigh Lynch by default; A. W. Joslyn defeated H. J. Lauer, four and three; August Harmon defeated J. W. Addeley, two and one; D. C. Pergei defeated L. T. Jones by default; A. L. Rose defeated S. Skelton, two and one; Verne C. Markley defeated R. B. Steinhoff, one up; F. E. Holt defeated F. C. Pew, two and one; M. C. Cochrane defeated J. H. Kerns, one up; F. E. Baker defeated M. A. Coeslik by default; Lee A. Mays defeated R. E. Striner, six and four; J. Morris Taylor defeated L. D. Lenhardt, one up; R. L. Peet defeated Fred L. Patterson, one up; 20 holes; J. H. Lather defeated M. J. Stringer, two and one; Frank Newell defeated Franklin Robbins by default; E. Gordon Saunders defeated R. K. Vinton by default; and H. L. Parker defeated J. W. Braffett, five and four.

Second round matches will be played Saturday or before, when the following pairings: Nauman-Joslyn, Harmon-Peruchel, Rose-Markley, Holt-Cochrane, Parker-Maysard, Taylor-Peet, Latter-Newell, and Saunders-Parker.

This week's Pro-Amateur tournament, held at Orchard Lake, was won by Clayton Attridge, of Vernon County, who professional, and William Conellan, Jr., of Indianapolis. Conellan, who helped his partner on four holes, which were just enough to put them ahead of the second place winners, Warren Pease, of Brooklands, and Jimmy Zeller, Bald Mountain professional, who did the 18 in 70 strokes.

Third place honors were divided between Harvey Olson and Charles Hildebrand, of Litchmore, and T. C. McDonald and Kenneth Martin, of Forest Lake, both of which teams turned in cards of 71.

Other scores were as follows: S. Stauffer and Chuck Meoffe, 38-35-73; Frank Pylon and O. L. Bodette, 38-36-74; Orman Heaunre and Francis Besuire, 37-38-75; M. Beaurie and Ed. Beaurie, 37-35-72; Egan Frick and Al Diabich, 35-36-75; Harry Sheppard and Charles Van Winkle, 40-38-73; Joe Houser and A. M. Davis, 36-36-72; M. K. Hockley and Don Babel, 36-34-72; Maurice Cochran and Pete Martin, 33-34-73; Tom Fillmore and W. J. Schmitt, 36-30-72; A. Campbell and L. Fabiani, not ready; C. W. Ganger and M. F. Goulay, 37-36-73; John Fauske and James V. Hedrick, 37-38-73; and Ray Buck and N. Olson, 37-36-73.

Play in the women's club championship tournament at the Orchard Lake Country Club has progressed to the semi-finals, in the championship flight. One semifinal match, between Mrs. Vera G. Perry and Mrs. W. Steinhoff, in which Mrs. Perry was victorious, has already been played. The other, between Mrs. S. S. Skelton and Mrs. Addeley, will be played this week-end.
