

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

BY SALLY KNOX

SHOWER PLANNED FOR MISS WILSON

Community House Board To Give Bride-To-Be On Monday

PRESIDENT

Miss Irene Hanley, of 376 West Brown street, was elected president of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the weekly luncheon meeting of the organization held at the Community House Thursday noon.

LITERARY CLUB MEETS ON OCT. 7

Program of Music Is Arranged For Group's First Assembly

The Women's Literary Club will hold its first meeting at 2:30 p. m., Oct. 7, at the Community House. The music committee, consisting of Mrs. Arlene Soderberg, Mrs. Blanch Fox, and Mrs. Louise Welch, has prepared an excellent musical program for the occasion.

Aids Church Fair

Thursday Musicals Enters Fourth Season On Oct. 9; Officers Announced

The Thursday Musicals, which will start this fourth season with a program on Thursday, Oct. 9, Mrs. F. W. Boynton again heads the group.

Thursday Musicals Enters Fourth Season On Oct. 9; Officers Announced

The Thursday Musicals, which will start this fourth season with a program on Thursday, Oct. 9, Mrs. F. W. Boynton again heads the group.

ORGANIZE JUNIOR COLLEGE GROUP

Younger Branch Of A. A. U. W. Is Planned; First Meeting Tonight

A number of Birmingham younger women college graduates met tonight at the Fox and Rounds for the purpose of forming a junior chapter of the American Association of University Women.

Helen Wagner Neff, Teacher of Piano, is planning to give a recital at the Community House on September 28th.

The Florsheim Shoe

When you've added up the extra style and comfort, the longer wear Florsheim shoes give you, you'll agree their price exceeds the price you pay

Most Styles 10 Williams Boot Shop - 117 West Maple

Michigan League Luncheon Is Held

Mrs. Thomas Thurber and Mrs. Robert Huxford entertained the Michigan League at luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Thurber on Oak street.

The next meeting of the organization has been set for Oct. 22 at the home of Mrs. Lee A. White.

GIRL SCOUT BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY OCT. 10

For the benefit of the Girl Scout camp on Davis Lake, the Girl Scout Council is sponsoring a "bargain bridge" which will be an event of Oct. 10 at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harry Klingler, on Cranbrook road.

The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Stowe D. Baldwin, chairman, Mrs. Klingler, Mrs. Clinton Sears, Mrs. Rodney Weeks, Mrs. W. C. Russell, and Mrs. Rolfe Spinning. The affair is open to the public.

Tap Dancing

A safe way to reduce! Classes start Monday, September 29. Private lessons if desired. Phone 2431 for particulars.

Now Ready APPLES - MacIntoshes Reds - STRANDCREST FARMS

Adams Road - 1 1/4 Miles North of Maple Phone 1102

Irene Hats and Dresses are different! End-of-Month SPECIALS. We introduce a sale that will interest you! END-OF-MONTH SPECIALS! Enjoy these savings featured for Friday and Saturday only. Come, get acquainted, even if you don't buy.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

DR. AND MRS. FREDERICK CRAWFORD, of East Maple avenue, returned Sunday from three weeks' trip through the eastern states and Canada.

Mr. Stanley Todd, of Pierce street, is recovering from a serious illness of several weeks. Miss Dorothy Pote, of Lincoln avenue, returned Sunday from a week-end at the home of Mrs. Harry Klingler, on Cranbrook road.

Mr. W. W. Masters and Mrs. W. A. Bassett, of Southfield, returned Saturday from a vacation in Petoskey.

A SOCIAL meeting of the Past Noble Grand order of the Rebekah Lodge was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. T. C. Hotelling, of Merrill street, with Mrs. Gilbert, of London street, assisting as hostess.

Miss Betty Harrington, of Detroit, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Harrington, of Ann street.

Mr. Morgan F. Carter and Mr. Davis Doherty will return to Michigan State College for their sophomore year, where they will be roommates at the Alpha Gamma Kappa fraternity house.

Miss Jean Daniels, of Lincoln avenue, entertains Mr. John Radke and Mr. Harold McLaughlin, of Rodgers City, over the week-end.

MRS. CLARA BAKER, who has spent the past year in Detroit, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hamaker, of Chester street, returned to her home in Huntington Park, Calif., last Wednesday.

Floyd Doherty, of East Maple avenue, left Monday for Ann Arbor, where he will enter the University of Michigan as a medical student.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hallock and Miss Dena Hallock, of Ann street, have returned from their summer home at Bay Port, Mich., where they have spent the past few months.

Mrs. Paul Morrow, of George street, entertained her sister, Mrs. Clarabelle Carson Rodgers, of Northville, over the week-end.

MR. AND MRS. L. G. GREEN, of Township street, had as their guest for the week-end, Mr. Albert McVean, of LeRoy, New York.

Alfred B. Pote, of Lincoln avenue, has left for Big Rapids where he will enter Ferris Institute to begin a course in law.

Mrs. Henry McQueen, formerly Miss Claire Gillett, of Tarrytown, N. Y., is spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Corryell, of Arlington road.

Mrs. William C. Knight, of West Lincoln avenue, with her daughters, Marilyn and Natalie, is visiting here from St. Paul, Minn. Miss Maude Curry, of Bates street, left Saturday to attend

Southfield Township Girl Becomes Bride of Mr. Everett Haynes

Last Thursday evening, Sept. 18, Miss Minnie Ellen Haynes, of Southfield township, was married to Mr. Everett Haynes, of New Hampshire. The wedding took place at seven o'clock at the home of her brother, Mr. John Bell, of Southfield road. The Rev. D. L. Wray, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

MISS MINNIE BELL WEDS EASTERNER

A large and enthusiastic group of Birmingham women met at the Mary Griffith lounge of the Community House Monday afternoon and formed the Birmingham unit of the National Farm and Garden Club.

Golfers Prepare For Season's Close

With the arrival of fall weather, the golf tournament season is drawing to a close, and district golf clubs are preparing to write bids to their respective associations for golf balls, the celebration of President's day, and their annual elections.

Symphony Season Drive Aides Meet

Proceeding the opening of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra season, captains in the drive conducted in spring for the sale of subscription tickets are meeting this week and next for organization. Several Birmingham captains are expected to attend the tea which Mrs. John S. Newberry will give today in Detroit for Mrs. Norman Lyle and Mrs. Donald T. Stanton.

Our Autumn Clearance Sale Ends September 30th Shop In This Sale For Christmas Gifts. It presents an excellent opportunity to buy beautiful things for Christmas, giving at very substantial savings. Or, maybe there's an Autumn bride on your list for whom you can find something rather nice.

Antiques - Discount Ten Per Cent. This means an article originally selling for $25.00 will be $22.50 in September. The discount applies to Furniture, Mirrors, Early American Glass, Old Pewter, Old Copper, Old Hooked Rugs, Steel Engravings, Currier & Ives Lithographs, Etc.

Gift Merchandise - Discount Twenty-five Per Cent. This group includes Italian Pottery, French (Quimper) Pottery, Murano Glass, Florentine Leather, Silhouettes and Pictures, Reed & Barton Pewter, Meann Hand-woven Blankets, and in fact, everything in the shop that is not odd. For instance a Reed & Barton Pewter Platter that regularly sells for $15 will be $11.25. A Meann Hand-woven Blanket regularly priced at $10 will be $7.50.

Helen Fitzmaurice Wendell in the VILLAGE OF BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN 266 South Woodward Avenue Telephone 1625

MARGUERITE'S 3rd ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL OFFER. To celebrate this anniversary we are offering to our patrons the World's famous MARINELO Cosmetics, including lotion, powder, creams, etc. of the regular $3 price for only 85c.

Marguerite Beauty Salon. Come in early in order to secure the purchase of this unusual offer. Please today for an appointment with Mrs. Samuel and then enjoy increasing your beauty problem with her personally.