Distinctly Personal Christmas Greeting Cards

Here now, and unusually complete, are the assortments of Greeting Cards for Christmas, 1930. And here your wishes will have full sway, for there is wide opportunity for individual choice.

Hand-made papers of soft hues, with deckle edge in both rag and parchment... hand painted, never in such good taste... joyously colorful modernistic designs... etchings of old masters reproduced in greeting fashion for framing... thought and sentiment of a new sincerity... greater consideration in children's cards... SURELY here you will find the end of your search for exactly what you want.

So let your selection be reflective. Begin thinking, now, of the holiday season, for then you will be more pleased than ever to let these better cards of individuality carry your name to your friends.
