COX EXPECTED TO SHOW FORM AS U. OF M. FULLBACK THIS YEAR

When the University of Michigan football team opens its practice upon Denison University and Michigan State Normal College in the double-header at Ann Arbor next Saturday, Roderick Cox, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Cox, 1040 East Maple avenue, probably will carry the pluck as fullback on the first team.

This was indicated during the last week and early this week when Cox displayed more than enough ability to cause Coach Ripke to indicate his preference for the Birmingham youth. After six days of ground work with hard scrimmage on Saturday in which Cox was seen in several spectacular plays, one a 60-yard run for a touchdown, the ambitious squad rounded out its elementary work and polished up its defensive and attack for the opening games of the schedule. Cox is admittedly one of the best defensive players on the squad and frequently on Saturday he broke through the opposing line to throw the ball-carrier for losses. Undoubtedly Cox will break into the Big Ten competition and gridiron observers are of the opinion he will heat out Goldsmith for the job as varsity fullback.

Starred At Baldwin

During his football days at Baldwin, young Cox broke into the varsity line in his sophomore year. He is now only 19 years old, fast, agile and trim. He is looked upon as one of the great gains for Michigan during the coming season.

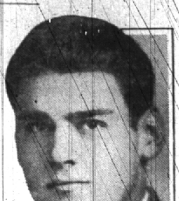

In the attack in the opening games likely to be diversified, with the coaches experimenting with various types of offensive play and giving all the members of the squad an opportunity to work under fire.

Indications are that it will be possible to work out a diversified attack, stressing both lateral passing and driving into the end zone. Forward passing, as seen from the first week's drill, practice during this period, will be capable of halfbacks, including besides Captain Harrison Simmling, the varsity line, the great-gaining Newman, Wheeler, Tesmer, Stoll, Wills and Vost. Several of these have lots of speed, and if lateral passes start clicking, they will do a lot of damage.

The one real bright spot in Eastman and Newman as forward passers, both of them better than any heavier Michigan has had in the last two years. Daniels and Hudson also can serve in this capacity in a pinch, it was demonstrated.

Nimrods Are Fined For Drinking Wine

Three Detroit hunters who included wine, beer and spaghetti in their hunting supplies came afloat the law on Saturday. They were arrested by Patrolman James Anderson and taken before local Justices, Felix Gumbel, the driver, paid $75 for driving while under the influence of liquor, Joe Dauggen, archer of the hunters, paid $15 for being intoxicated, Emilio Zaccarilli, the third member, paid $25 for being intoxicated. Zaccarilli was arraigned before Justice Floyd S. Black and the other two hunters before Justice Malcolm Hunt.

RODERICK COX

With such pass snatches as DeBaker and Hewitt on the squad, the overall attack is likely to give Wolverine opponents considerable trouble.

In lining up his men for scrimmage Saturday, Ripke sent a team made up of Hewitt and Daniels, ends; Auer and Draveling, tackles; Grinnell and Hozer, guards; Smith, center; Tesmer, quarterback; Hudson and Heston, halves; and Cox, fullback, against the team made up of Siskeng and Manuel, ends; Gitman and Miller, tackles; Samuels and Cornwell, guards; Morgan, center; Newman, quarterback; Eastman and Wheeler, halfbacks; and Goldsmith, fullback. All of this group, plus Williamson and Stok, ends; Clonset, tackle; Purdum, La Jeunesse and Avery, guards; Morrison and Soebberg, centers; Captain Sinaral, DeBaker, Holmes, Wills and Vost halfbacks, are likely to get into Big Ten competition.

The occupants violently to the ground, both sustaining painful injuries about the shoulders. Miss Wallace had her collar bone broken while Mr. Henning got badly shaken up. The horse was caught by Jerry Russell after smashing the buggy to kindling wood.

Little June Pelton of Detroit is rehearsing with Mrs. Leslie Carter in New York, under the management of D. Bellasco, and will appear with them in two plays this coming season. She has been with Robt. Hilliard for two years.

FROM THE ECCENTRIC COLUMNS — of Long Ago

Bits of News Gleaned From Old Files Of The Eccentric—The Items That Make Up The Historical Background Of The Birmingham of Today.

Last Wednesday, a young man, a painter, came to West Fair's house to stay. He will be called West Fair, Jr., and weighs 10 pounds.

From the talk we hear, there is a foreboding that our present wide and spacious street, Saginaw Avenue, may be narrowed down to a common country four rod road.

If the young lady who left her slipper in Joe Brooks' melon patch would call at this office, we will cheerfully return it to her and no questions asked. Joe thinks it would be just as promptly and willingly hands that does not contain initials if she wishes to retain incog.

A tin wedding was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Gagnon at their residence last Tuesday evening. During the festivities the worthy couple were serenaded by the brass band. Dancing was one feature of the evening, and was kept up until near morning.
