COURT FINES $743 IN MONTH

Report For August Shows Traffic Law Violators Pay Most

Fines amounting to $743.80 were collected last month in the court of Justice Floyd S. Bock from offenders against the statutes of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

Birmingham offenders paid $368.80 of this total, divided as follows: 14 speeders, $147.80; two reckless drivers, $65; two traffic signal violators, $11; one drunk driver, $100; and two persons charged with disorderly conduct, $45. In addition, two other persons charged with disorderly conduct were sentenced to spend 15 days in the Oakland County jail and the case against a fifth was dismissed.

Those arrested by Hills officers for disorderly conduct paid the greatest percentage of the fines for that village, five persons paying $205. One was sentenced to 15 days, another to 20 days, and the case against a third was dismissed. Nine reckless drivers paid $170 in fines, bringing the total to $375.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Alex J. Groesbeck, candidate for governor: "I observe that many parcels of land, also many homes, are too heavily taxed in Oakland County. If I am elected governor, I shall endeavor to have the State Legislature change the Covert Road Act so that no piece of property can be too heavily assessed for public improvements."
