MICHIGAN NEEDS A MAN OF DEEDS!

This Is No Time For Experimenting!

The eyes of a nation are on Michigan! Lovers of efficient government and the pursuit of lower taxes are aching with hope for a drastic and much needed change in governmental affairs. Now instead of a credit balance in the state treasury, as when Gov. Groesbeck left office, there is a deficit of nearly $8,000,000 and it will be $15,000,000 by January 1, 1931. Michigan demands a leader... an intelligent leader... an EXPERIENCED leader! Such a man is Alex. J. Groesbeck! A man whose ability, whose organizing genius, whose competency are a matter of open record and at the service of the people of Michigan. With a deficit of $15,000,000 staring the people of Michigan in the face THIS IS NO TIME TO EXPERIMENT with men whose ambitions are high and whose experiences in conducting vast business affairs is low. WE REPEAT, THIS IS NO TIME FOR EXPERIMENTS, BUT FOR EXPERIENCE. Vote for Alex. J. Groesbeck and end the reign of inefficiency!

Store Your Faith in A Man That's Faithful!

Alex. J. Groesbeck has proven his faith to the people of Michigan during his previous administrations. His promises were rigidly adhered to, his word was his bond, his deeds today stand as achievements in experienced business ability and organizing genius. The thousands of miles of clear, wide and unobstructed roads you drive on today are Groesbeck's accomplishments, the scores of new and rebuilt institutions for the sick, the aged, the poor, are products of Groesbeck's honor bound pledges during his tenure of office. His guarding of the state funds and the consistent healthy conditions of the state treasury kept faith with his promise to the people. The low taxes that you paid during the years 1920 to 1926 are indicative of Groesbeck's executive ability. Here is, truly, a man that keeps your faith and holds your faith! Not a blemish, not a mark stands on the name of Alex. J. Groesbeck. STORE YOUR FAITH IN THE MAN THAT'S FAITHFUL!

ALEX. J. GROESBECK for GOVERNOR

GROESBECK
Built New
ROADS FOR MICHIGAN

Up to 1921 when Groesbeck became governor, there was only 318 miles of concrete highway as contrasted with over 1,100 miles when Groesbeck left office in 1926. No extensive or important road building has been done since.

GROESBECK
Kept State
TAXES AT ROCK BOTTOM

In the accomplishment of building Michigan's great institutions and roads, involving millions, Groesbeck kept the general tax levy down to a minimum, which has never since been attained. Taxes have increased 35.5 per cent since he retired from office.

GROESBECK
Won $30,000,000
BONUS FOR VETERANS

Gov. Groesbeck was a powerful factor in the passage of the $30,000,000 bonus for veterans of the World War. Every ex-service man in the State of Michigan benefited by the passage of this act. It helped thousands when help was needed most.

GROESBECK
Built Ex-Service Men's
TUBERCULAR HOSPITAL

Under Alex. J. Groesbeck's administration the state of Michigan had organized a hospital for tubercular ex-service men at Camp Center, Grand Haven. This hospital, is dedicated to the honor of the state of Michigan. Another Groesbeck achievement!

GROESBECK
Abolished Dangerous
GRADE CROSSINGS

Of the 522 railway grade-crossings, a serious menace to life and property, 389 were abolished during Gov. Groesbeck's administration. This was accomplished by relocation of roads, subway and overhead constructions. Highways were widened and straightened and old roads similarly improved.

GROESBECK
Built and Rebuilt
Michigan's Institutions

During his administration 111 structures were built and rebuilt to comfortably house the charges of the state. This program embraced the building of the new Jackson Prison, partial rebuilding of the girls' training school at Adrian, Marquette Prison, School for Boys, and Poor Children at Coldwater, etc.

GROESBECK
Augmented Michigan's
EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

In his program for the advancement of education in Michigan, Governor Groesbeck had in mind two essential factors. First to create additional opportunities to the boys and girls and young men and women of the State, second to increase capacity and facilities of State educational institutions.

GROESBECK
Built
MODERN PRISONS

The new State prison at Jackson started during Gov. Groesbeck's administration, is regarded as one of the most modern, best organized penal institutions in America. Because of its many modern facilities, Jackson Prison did not experience any of the horrible outbreaks that were so prevalent recently.

GROESBECK
Made Possible
STATE OWNED FERRIES

It was in accordance with Gov. Groesbeck's firm desire that the Straits of Mackinac Ferry became State owned. Under State ownership service is better, and the costs have been cut two-thirds. Alex. J. Groesbeck hopes to eventually see toll charges on the straits ferry removed.

GROESBECK
Saved Michigan
MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

When Alex. J. Groesbeck became governor in 1920, Michigan's treasury was empty. On Dec. 31, 1926, when he retired from office, Michigan's treasury enjoyed a surplus. Gov. Groesbeck saved Michigan millions by sensible business methods, by discounting bills, wholesale buying, etc.

GROESBECK
Created New CRIMINAL CODE

During Gov. Groesbeck's administration a Commission was created to revise the laws of criminal procedure, and the new code was successfully drafted, promulgated, and passed by the legislature of 1927. This code was hailed as a long step forward in the administration of justice.

GROESBECK
Organized Sensible
Business Administration

Governor Groesbeck is remembered as the builder of big things in a big way. He kept expenditures in check. The Michigan bond, put today, is in debt approximately $7,600,000. The State is in a financial condition that will take all the good business sense of the best administration to contract.
