

OAKLAND COUNTY NEWS

Southern Oakland county voted with the rest of the state to elect Republicans to the eight state offices at the biennial state spring election.

E. J. Lederle of Royal Oak was re-elected Oakland county school commissioner without opposition.

All streets on the east side of Ferndale have been cleaned by a crew of men furnished at no direct cost to the city by the Oakland county poor commission at Royal Oak. From 25 to 30 men are employed at the work. City Manager Jay F. Gibbs said today, and the dirt is removed in city-owned trucks.

A series of benefit bridge parties to send a delegate from Ferndale to the Parent-Teacher Council to the P. T. A. convention at Traverse City, Apr. 22-24, will begin this week. Another party is planned for next week.

New officers of the council assumed duties yesterday at Lincoln high school, when future plans were discussed.

Free open-air band concerts have proved a popular means of summer entertainment in many towns in the state and many villages. Milford included, have gone to considerable expense to import outside bands for this purpose.

That Milford has a band that is up and coming was demonstrated at the recent American Legion district convention here where it made its first public appearance.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Chief William Putnam, Bloomfield Hills Police Department: "Motorists are beginning to use Telegraph road more frequently and the increased traffic conditions on Woodward avenue in our community are becoming more serious."

Chief William Putnam, Bloomfield Hills Police Department: "The surest way for a bootlegger to land in jail is to drink his own hooch. Invariably he gets into trouble."

Head rendering him unconscious. His rooster overturned, throwing him out, then righted itself, ran across the highway and again overturned and came back on its wheels a second time, finally stopping beside the fence like a mule. The driver, going through his pockets, and later found that his money, $13, was taken.

The Holly Fire department has been kept busy today this week answering calls resulting from grass fires. One such call during the week was for extinguishing Monday.

Seventeen members of the Royal Troop No. 33 with Scoutmaster Badio attended evening service at the Milford Baptist church Sunday. On Monday evening 18 members of the troop were present at the Court of Honor at South Lyon where they were awarded a troop efficiency streamer for February, the first which the Milford troop has ever attained. Transportation to South Lyon was furnished by the Troop committee.

The greatest savings in the Village of Berkeley in one year resulted in the present fiscal year through economical operation of all departments, the last annual report of Clerk Edward Parkin to the commission last night shows. Mr. Parkin retires on Apr. 20 after two years of service as village clerk.

Three youths, believed to be the same trio which held up the Cave Baroque, Woodward avenue and Coolidge highway, Royal Oak, and the Jockey club, Southfield Tuesday and One-Half-Mile roads, Sunday night, escaping with money and jewelry valued at $700, are believed to have been sighted as they were preparing to hold up the Huntington Inn, Woodward avenue near Eleven-Mile road Berkeley, at 11:30 p. m. yesterday.

The three young men were seen standing in front of the inn and one of them approached a window through which he inspected the interior. As the proprietor, George Lundberg, saw him, the three escaped in a waiting automobile.

Chief Frank Irons and Patrolman Lee Hamilton of Berkeley and Chief Deputy Sheriff Bernard F. Schardor were notified and began search for the youths who were not located. The inn was guarded by police until closing time.

Deputy sheriffs stationed in Southern Oakland county had a busy month during March with a total of 20 persons arrested for 12 charges. Complaints answered numbered 110 and eight stolen automobiles were recovered with only five machines reported stolen.

At Watrous, 1125 Lyons avenue, Royal Oak, will start his second year as professional at the Oakland Hills Country club which begins its 15th season tomorrow. The formal opening of the club's season will be May 2.

All new officers were elected at the meeting of the Oak Ridge Woman's Community club at a meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. Carl Meyer, 1919 North Main street. Those chosen were: Mrs. Lewis Beck, president; Mrs. Frank Krall, Jr., first vice president; Mrs. Andrew Campbell, second vice president; Mrs. Lafayette Sargent, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Beck, treasurer; Mrs. William Corliss, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. L. B. Mack, auditor.

An automobile, found stripped by Berkeley police at Oakshire avenue and Harvard road, at 1:30 a. m. today, was reported to the owner as recovered before it was missed. The machine, owned by the Berkeley Chevrolet Sales, had been stolen from the used car lot of the company last night. Patrolman Lee Hamilton found it with five tires taken from it, abandoned. It had not been reported as stolen.

Twenty-two students at Royal Oak high school, included in the classes of June, 1931, and January, 1932, were chosen to membership in the National Honor Society. H. J. Pontz, high school principal, announced today. The group is one of the largest ever added to the society at one time. Up to 15 per cent may be chosen from the upper third of the three high grades in the school, selections being made each half year.

The Rochester Tuesday Musical has launched plans for a gigantic annual musical event on May 12-13. It will be the staging of a musical play requiring a cast of nine principals and a total of 125 performers. All the available singing, acting, playing and dancing talent in the township will be sought though already the major parts and work has been assigned to well known members of the community.

Later Evert, 22, driving west on East Line road near Farmington early the other morning found himself approaching a car parked diagonally across the highway, with two men on each side signaling him to stop. Instead Evert sped up his car, driving at two miles an hour, and just the instant he threw a rock or fired a missile striking Evert in the forehead rendering him unconscious.
