

Stores, Offices Close For Three Hours Tomorrow In Observance of Good Friday

Traditional observance of Good Friday closing this year will be conducted tomorrow as usual with stores, schools and the Municipal office being closed from noon until 3 p. m. A Union Good Friday service of the churches of Birmingham will be held at the First Baptist Church from 1 to 3 p. m. and a Tre Ore service will be conducted at the Holy Name Chapel.

SHAIN'S DRUG STORE
If you did not receive your copy of the brochure commemorating our Silver Anniversary...
Corner of West Maple and Pierce

We Thank You!
GOOD friends of ours, you may be assured today that the institution which yesterday celebrated its Silver Anniversary will never forget the kindness of your visits, the neighborliness of your spirit and the loyalty of your friendship which you evidenced toward us on our 25th Anniversary.

Again and again we glowed with the flush of some tug at our heartstrings when you dropped in on us and said "Congratulations" yesterday. It was like old times when visits among friends was less hurried than nowadays.

WE RENEW OUR PLEDGE
Always we shall serve the principle that there is no substitute for quality and genuine personal service.
25 Years of Personal Drug Service man; Highway Commissioner, Harry Grant; Justice of the Peace (Full Term) Raymond Ferguson; Constable, Anthony Ledate; Southfield Township—Supervisor, George Bingham (R); Charles Bilovsky (D); Clerk, Mrs. Ona M. Utely (D); Albert Jacobs (B); Treasurer, Charles Collins (R); Norwood Tibbitts (D); Rev. W. Clarence Wright and the Rev. James W. Carter will give the Passion sermon and offer the services that commemorate the time Christ hung on the cross after His crucifixion.

(Concluded 1 from Page 1)
A. Vaughan, Clerk; James V. Bayley, Treasurer; R. Margaret Thomas; Highway Commissioner, John E. Wilson; Justice of the Peace (Full Term) Arthur J. Tuggey; Justice of the Peace (To Fill Vacancy) Rolla J. Corryell; Board of Review, Luther Heacock; Troy Township—Supervisor, Gardner M. Myler; Clerk, Glenn W. Eisean, Democrats; John Y. Cahalmore convictions. The bill will be used as a means of bringing about the state's high command does not fear the electric chair. Capital punishment in Illinois did not prevent the assassination of Dr. Lingie, the newspaper reporter, nor the slaying of one of the country's most notorious gamblers in his hotel room in New York.

(Concluded 2 from Page 1)

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
of the board, informed the group meeting to attend, that there would be no open meeting as the board had taken action voting to retain Mr. Vliet.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)
Municipal Building and the three blocks which compose the center. Appropriated one-third of the amount of the proposed budget this year represents the amount necessary to retire the bonded indebtedness incurred over the past 15 or 20 years. Approximately $127,000 will be needed for the next year represents the interest and principle on bonded indebtedness, the remainder is interest on the lowest in three years.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
old right-of-way and litigation which resulted from the construction of the railroad.
Take Up Options May 1
Plans for the opening of property needed for the Birmingham "cut-off," the new pavement which will follow the old Grand Trunk right-of-way, through the village, have been made by the State and these options will be taken up May 1. Authorization for the State Highway Commissioner, Grover C. Dillman to obtain options on the property was given by the highway committee of the state highway committee.

Charles E. Plumstead, village treasurer, Tuesday paid $18,773.46 in village bonds and interest due yesterday, he reported. The principal payment was $20,000.00 and the rest was interest. General improvement water and special assessment bonds were retired with the payment.

Andrew C. Bander, Prohibitionist; Hallen M. Bell, Schnurya Kleiman, Socialist; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Walter J. Pearce, Republican; Marvin S. Pettman, Democrat; Arthur R. Board of Education, Frank Goddard; J. Camillus Lehr, Republican; J. Camillus Lehr, Member of Board of Agriculture (Two to be elected) Matilda R. Williams, Democrat; William Williams; Theodore Rzepko, William F. Tyson, Democrat; Francis F. Underhill and W. F. Johnson, Prohibitionists; B. F. Johnson, William R. Russell, Socialist.

(Concluded 2 from Page 1)
The State election ballot is as follows: Justice of the Supreme Court (Two to be elected) Henry M. Butzel, Howard Weist, Republican; Fremont Evans, Democrat; McLaughlin, Democrats; Regents David E. Davis (D); Justice of the Peace (To Fill Vacancy) Ralph Stoen; Junius E. Beal, Republican; Charles F. Hemans, W. Leo Cahal-

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
The right to take human life is the prerogative of the creator. This bill influences a jury to the extent that, rather than convict a man where even a slight mitigating circumstance might be of aid, the jury would render a verdict of not guilty. The bill deprives the jury of the right to recommend mercy.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)
The Grand Trunk Railway will be operating on a right-of-way to June, officials declare, and the installation of regular rapid transit and commuter service between Detroit and Pontiac is expected by the latter part of July, although St. Henry declared he would be unable to announce the railroad right-of-way along this development.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
The Grand Trunk Railway will be operating on a right-of-way to June, officials declare, and the installation of regular rapid transit and commuter service between Detroit and Pontiac is expected by the latter part of July, although St. Henry declared he would be unable to announce the railroad right-of-way along this development.

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
of the board, informed the group meeting to attend, that there would be no open meeting as the board had taken action voting to retain Mr. Vliet.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
old right-of-way and litigation which resulted from the construction of the railroad.
Take Up Options May 1
Plans for the opening of property needed for the Birmingham "cut-off," the new pavement which will follow the old Grand Trunk right-of-way, through the village, have been made by the State and these options will be taken up May 1. Authorization for the State Highway Commissioner, Grover C. Dillman to obtain options on the property was given by the highway committee of the state highway committee.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)
Municipal Building and the three blocks which compose the center. Appropriated one-third of the amount of the proposed budget this year represents the amount necessary to retire the bonded indebtedness incurred over the past 15 or 20 years. Approximately $127,000 will be needed for the next year represents the interest and principle on bonded indebtedness, the remainder is interest on the lowest in three years.

(Concluded 2 from Page 1)
The State election ballot is as follows: Justice of the Supreme Court (Two to be elected) Henry M. Butzel, Howard Weist, Republican; Fremont Evans, Democrat; McLaughlin, Democrats; Regents David E. Davis (D); Justice of the Peace (To Fill Vacancy) Ralph Stoen; Junius E. Beal, Republican; Charles F. Hemans, W. Leo Cahal-

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
The right to take human life is the prerogative of the creator. This bill influences a jury to the extent that, rather than convict a man where even a slight mitigating circumstance might be of aid, the jury would render a verdict of not guilty. The bill deprives the jury of the right to recommend mercy.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)
The Grand Trunk Railway will be operating on a right-of-way to June, officials declare, and the installation of regular rapid transit and commuter service between Detroit and Pontiac is expected by the latter part of July, although St. Henry declared he would be unable to announce the railroad right-of-way along this development.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
The Grand Trunk Railway will be operating on a right-of-way to June, officials declare, and the installation of regular rapid transit and commuter service between Detroit and Pontiac is expected by the latter part of July, although St. Henry declared he would be unable to announce the railroad right-of-way along this development.

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
of the board, informed the group meeting to attend, that there would be no open meeting as the board had taken action voting to retain Mr. Vliet.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
old right-of-way and litigation which resulted from the construction of the railroad.
Take Up Options May 1
Plans for the opening of property needed for the Birmingham "cut-off," the new pavement which will follow the old Grand Trunk right-of-way, through the village, have been made by the State and these options will be taken up May 1. Authorization for the State Highway Commissioner, Grover C. Dillman to obtain options on the property was given by the highway committee of the state highway committee.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)
Municipal Building and the three blocks which compose the center. Appropriated one-third of the amount of the proposed budget this year represents the amount necessary to retire the bonded indebtedness incurred over the past 15 or 20 years. Approximately $127,000 will be needed for the next year represents the interest and principle on bonded indebtedness, the remainder is interest on the lowest in three years.

(Concluded 2 from Page 1)
The State election ballot is as follows: Justice of the Supreme Court (Two to be elected) Henry M. Butzel, Howard Weist, Republican; Fremont Evans, Democrat; McLaughlin, Democrats; Regents David E. Davis (D); Justice of the Peace (To Fill Vacancy) Ralph Stoen; Junius E. Beal, Republican; Charles F. Hemans, W. Leo Cahal-

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
The right to take human life is the prerogative of the creator. This bill influences a jury to the extent that, rather than convict a man where even a slight mitigating circumstance might be of aid, the jury would render a verdict of not guilty. The bill deprives the jury of the right to recommend mercy.

(Concluded 4 from Page 1)
The Grand Trunk Railway will be operating on a right-of-way to June, officials declare, and the installation of regular rapid transit and commuter service between Detroit and Pontiac is expected by the latter part of July, although St. Henry declared he would be unable to announce the railroad right-of-way along this development.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
The Grand Trunk Railway will be operating on a right-of-way to June, officials declare, and the installation of regular rapid transit and commuter service between Detroit and Pontiac is expected by the latter part of July, although St. Henry declared he would be unable to announce the railroad right-of-way along this development.

(Concluded 3 from Page 1)
of the board, informed the group meeting to attend, that there would be no open meeting as the board had taken action voting to retain Mr. Vliet.

(Concluded 5 from Page 1)
old right-of-way and litigation which resulted from the construction of the railroad.
Take Up Options May 1
Plans for the opening of property needed for the Birmingham "cut-off," the new pavement which will follow the old Grand Trunk right-of-way, through the village, have been made by the State and these options will be taken up May 1. Authorization for the State Highway Commissioner, Grover C. Dillman to obtain options on the property was given by the highway committee of the state highway committee.

Just Two Days More
To have your HAT CLEANED For Easter
Birmingham Shoe Shine Parlor
EUS BAHIMUS, Prop.
East Maple—Just a few steps from Woodward

MEN SUITS AND TOPCOATS CLEANED AND PRESSED $1 BROSSY'S Phone 90

GAIN GOODYEAR LEADS WITH THE IMPROVED STANDARD ALL-WEATHER
Eleven GREAT IMPROVEMENTS—No Extra Price
THE TIRE SENSATION of 1931
E. S. Barden
Trade In Your Old Tires

Exide BATTERIES
Road Service
Expert Battery Service
Vulcanizing
PHONE (For Service) 781
30x5 H. D. Truck - $17.95
32x6 H. D. Truck - $29.75

Huron Tire Co.
534 S. Woodward
Open 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Phone 781