

Under Cassmen Downed By Seniors In Tank Meet

CROWD SEES SENIORS WIN

Tank Victory First Conquest By Group In Four Years Of Effort

For the first time in four years students who are now in the Senior class at Baldwin High School won an inter-metropolitan contest when they triumphed over the Juniors and the Sophs in a meet held in the Barnum Pool last Thursday. The final score was Seniors 28, Juniors 24, and Sophs 19.

That swimming is gaining in popularity was evidenced by the "crowd" that taxed the gallery seats to capacity. More than 200 attended.

The Juniors took the greatest number of firsts, winning the medley relay, the breast-stroke, and the 200-yard free style events. Miller and Botting took the breast stroke and the 220-yard event respectively, both winning by a wide margin. Hogan of the Sophs took two firsts for his class when he won the 100-yard and the 100-yard free styles. Martindale won the 100 yard backstroke for the Seniors, and Robertson triumphed in the diving contest after a close struggle with Drum of the Juniors.

The diving contest was especially thrilling with Robertson and Drum in a close contest, even though it took place in the Barnum Pool. Drum had to submit to a close struggle with Robertson in the regular junior event. Robertson and time and again made spectacular dives.

The summary: Free Style Relay (200 yds.)—Won by Seniors. Sops, second; Juniors, third. 100 yds. Free Style—Won by Juniors. 200 yds. Free Style—Won by Juniors. 100 yds. Breast Stroke—Won by Miller (Juniors). 100 yds. Breast Stroke—Won by Miller (Juniors). 100 yds. Breast Stroke—Won by Miller (Juniors). 100 yds. Breast Stroke—Won by Miller (Juniors).
