Felt of the Michigan State College, at a meeting of the Birmingham unit of the National Farm and Garden Club to be held at the Community House, May 11. Prof. Felt is professor of entomology at the State College.

Plans will be made at this meeting for the club's annual flower show to be held in June.

The Past Noble Grand club of the Rebecca lodge met Tuesday evening for its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ina Nixon of Hunt road. At the next meeting, which will be held May 5 at the home of Mrs. Charles J. Jolock of Ann street, Mrs. Mido Smith of Grand Ave. the treasurer of the Rebecca Assembly of Michigan, will be a guest of honor.

The Missionary Guild of the Presbyterian church held a spring rummage sale Wednesday and Thursday of this week in the empty store at the corner of Woodward and Lincoln avenues. This is an annual affair given for the Guild for the purpose of increasing the Missionary fund.

Mrs. Della Waterbury will be hostess to the Sans-Souci bridge club Thursday at a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Luscombe of West Maple avenue.

Mrs. Emma Stone of Elm avenue and Mrs. Marie McMillan of Purdy street returned together last week from St. Petersburg, Fla., where they have spent the winter.

Club Gives Bridge For Scholarship

Mrs. W. C. C. Allen is chairman of the committee in charge of the benefit bridge to be given by the Detroit Wesleyley Club at the Community House Saturday at 2 p. m. Proceeds of the benefit will be used to further the work of the Scholarship Fund maintained by the club.

Assisting Mrs. Allen on the committee are Mrs. Stove D. Baldwin, Mrs. Edgar L. Bailey, Mrs. Raymond Collins, Mrs. R. C. Rothen, and Mrs. Robert Distenfeld. Tickets may be obtained from, or table reservations made with, any member of the committee.

Presbyterian Women Meet

The four divisions of the Women's Union of the Presbyterian Church met Wednesday, individually, for the purpose of selecting group leaders for the coming year. Division No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. Seymour Adams of Adams road, Division No. 2 at the home of Mrs. E. D. Shelby of Riverside Road, Beverly Hill, No. 3 at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson of Dorchester road, and No. 4 at the home of Mrs. Oscar Miller of the Bowen-Mile road.

Mrs. and Mrs. D. E. Wilkinson of Merrill street have had a quiet group for the past two weeks. Mrs. Wilkinson's sister, Mrs. Sarah and date, and her mother and niece's husband, Dr. and Mrs. Moadle, all of whom have just returned from Europe, were present when they spent the winter. The guests left Sunday for their home in Traverse City, Mich. Dr. Moadle, who is now retired, was formerly with the physical at the Ford Motor Company.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Royal Oak announce the birth of a son, Robert Francis, born Friday, Apr. 10.

Plans were completed for a program of interpretive dances to be presented by the pupils of Miss Gertrude Parrish, and will be followed by ballroom dancing. Mrs. Harold Carson is general chairman.

Home Economics Group Visits Estates

The Birmingham group of the Michigan State College Home Economics extension course will visit all of the groups of the organization from this county, next Monday and Wednesday, Apr. 27 and 28, in a tour conducted by the county agent, Miss Elizabeth Ford. The tour, which is planned to exploit those features of home furnishing that have been emphasized in the lessons received by the groups, includes a visit along the morning to the stock farm of Dr. Sarah Van Housen Jones near Boyceville, where the guests will view the rare collection of antiques in the beautiful old home of four floors. During the afternoon of the same day the tour will lead the guests to the home of Mr. Myrdal E. Wilson of Dodge road, who has granted the organization the privilege of seeing the unique collection of books in English and German translated into fact, by giving them the freedom of his library.

On Wednesday morning, Mrs. Well will conduct the groups through the Birmingham Community House, pointing out features which are of special interest to the members. In the afternoon, the school museum and other points of interest at Grand Rapids will be visited as a final and interesting episode of the tour.

Miss Virginia Taylor, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. R. J. Taylor of Southfield avenue, attended at a meeting of the Birmingham unit of the Detroit Wednesday given for her bridge club, the members of which were formerly classmates at the Mt. Ida School in the east. The hostess was Mrs. Gladys Penford of Detroit.

Class To Give Play For Drive Workers

The youthful play acting class under the tutelage of Mrs. Raymond Reilly will do its bit to aid in the drive for maintenance of funds for the Community House. The class will present, "The Dyspeptic Opera," by Perceval White, as part of the after-dinner program for the drive workers which will be given Friday evening at the Community House. More than 20 children will take part in the play, which will close the season for Mrs. Reilly's class.

The play-acting group meets at the Community House Saturdays throughout the fall and winter seasons.

Mothers And Sons DeMolay Guests

Fathers and sons have been feted and banqueted for some years past, likewise have mothers and daughters, but for the first time mothers and sons will be fettered at a dinner to be given by the Hasselberger Chapter of the Order of DeMolay at the Birmingham Masonic Temple Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Following an invocation by Malvern Evers, mothers and sons will be introduced to bring about an informal and neighborly atmosphere. George Mason Lodge, which will give a toastmaster.
