

Mrs. Molla Propp

"In an accident," said MRS. MOLLA PROPP, "absence of body is better than presence of mind."

YOU know, my dear, I have always thought what a thrill it must be to rear a motor boat. Well, the other day the Tom took us out in theirs, a perfectly gorgeous mahogany runabout. Tom said it ran just like an automobile. You just step on the buzzer and push the thing forward and there you were. He wanted me to try it and I remembered what he said about a boat being like an automobile. So I pushed the lever thing forward and away we went. "Head for the docks," said Tom and I did... at thirty miles an hour. "Help!" I yelled. "Where is the brake?" I saw the dock coming straight for me. Tom yelled for me to throw it overboard. "Where is the steering board and where do I throw it?" I asked. But just as we were going to ram into the dock, Tom managed to turn the wheel and...
