Parade

B. J. Meisow
 One of the most active of the many celebration committees was that of the Birmingham Lions Club in charge of parade and floats. Mr. Meisow, chairman of the group, enlisted Floyd Swartz, N. W. Burkan to solicit outside communities for floats; G. Devey Kimball to contact with the group; Dr. John B. Haszberger to arrange for the bands; Claude E. Mosher to provide sufficient automobiles; and Arthur Wingerden to supervise the movement as marshal.
