Sen. Couzens To Talk At Peace Dinner

Sen. James Couzens will give the address of welcome at the dinner to be held at the Community House Saturday evening in honor of members of the disarmament caravan of the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom, who will arrive here on their transcontinental journey which began in Los Angeles, June 21.

The caravan is crossing the country in an effort to secure signatures for the international disarmament petition to be presented to President Hoover with the request that delegates from the United States to the disarmament conference in Geneva in February be instructed to vote for "total and universal disarmament."

Among those who will attend the dinner are: Senator Couzens, Village President and Mrs. Harry Allen, Clarence Vliet, superintendent of schools; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Penny, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Diack, Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lyle, Mrs. C. G. Eden, Mrs. Charles J. Shain, Mrs. Frederick H. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Garwood, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Gilbreath, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Angus D. McLay, John J. Gafill, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Mrs. Arthur M. Bogue, state chairman of the Michigan branch of the W. I. L. P. F., J. H. Howarth, Miss Marjorie Howarth, and George R. Averill.

A delegation from Rochester will also attend, headed by Mrs. Alice Van Hoosen Jones and her daughter, Miss Sarah Van Hoosen Jones.

The caravan is planning to reach Dearborn Friday night, where the members will remain for a breakfast at the Dearborn Inn the following day.

A full program has been planned for Saturday, beginning with the Dearborn breakfast. The caravan will make its next stop in Pontiac where it will be welcomed officially by Mayor R. W. Donaldson. The caravan will proceed to Rochester where Mrs. Van Hoosen Jones and her daughter will give a tea, afterwards arriving in Birmingham at 6 P. M.

The personnel of the program includes Miss Katherine Blake and Mrs. John Jay White of New York City, Miss Mildred Olmstead of Philadelphia, Miss Dorothy Cook of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mabel Vernon of Wilmington, Del.

ORCHARD LAKE SAILORS RACE CANADIANS

For the first time in history, Orchard Lake will be the scene of an international event Saturday, when sailors of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto test their skill against the sailors of Orchard Lake Country Club.

The Canadians, who accepted the challenge made by Orchard Lake, have been sailing in races on the Great Lakes since 1852, and have also participated in the annual regatta at Marblehead, Mass. Saturday's event will be the forerunner of annual races, as the Orchard Lake sailors have agreed to race at Toronto in 1932.

For years members of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club have sailed the same type of craft with which Orchard Lake skippers are familiar. For this reason, and because the fleet owned by the Orchard Lake Club was designed and built in Canada, the visitors will bring no boats. The class raced on Orchard Lake is a 14-foot dinghy. Seven of a fleet of 15 will be assigned to the guest sailors with a one-man crew for each skipper.

Two races are scheduled for the day, with the first beginning at 3 P. M. For this type of small craft, Orchard Lake provides an ideal course. It is triangular in shape, and almost 4½ miles long with the course laid out around the little island in the lake.

Among those who will come from Toronto to race will be Cyril Clark, C. W. Bourke, L. Scott J. A. Hyland, A. Fleming, H. J. Bongnard and Reginald Dixon.

The seven opponents have not been named by the Orchard Lake Club for the first race as yet but they are likely to be chosen from the following group: Robert F. Grindley, C. Theron Van Dusen, Frederick S. Strong, Jr., C. W. Loomis, Albert Wasey, Vernon Myers, Harold L. Ward, Paul L. Penfield, Hugh W. Hitchcock, George B. Wiley, Clark Bennett, Capt. H. Ledyard Towle, Dr. Campbell Harvey and J. Robert F. Swanson.

At the conclusion of the races, the club will hold its "August Amble," which will include other water sports to be followed by a dinner dance in the club. A number of parties have been planned for this event.

SEASON OPENS AT METAMORA HUNT

Autumn is the hunter's season. The red of his coat and the gold of his bugle are reflected in its brilliant coloring.

And as summer wanes the sportsman's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of wood and field, a good mount and a lively pack.

This is the time of year when Bloomfield Hills society turns to the Metamora branch of the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club for stimulating diversion. Hunting lodges are opened, lunches and dinners and other gay events are planned for leisure hours. The hunter inspects the stable and kennel, and the season is under way.

The first event of this year's season was held Saturday with the opening of Metamora. Elliott S. Nichols was master of the hounds. A group of about 20 hunters entered the chase.

Among those who rode in the first hunt of the season were Mrs. Carlton M. Higbie, Miss Geraldine Higbie, Miss Margaret Phillips Standart, Frederick M. Alger, Jr., William Reeve Clark, Bernard E. Hopper and his nephew, Buddy Hooper. Miss Viola Hammond, Miss Peggy Ainsworth, George T. Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Frost, Edward Thom, Miss Florence Skae, E. E. MacIrone and Elliott S. Nichols, Jr.

Considering the warm weather, the numbes of hunt enthusiasts who are out of town and the fact that it was the opening of the season, authorities point out, the number present was about average.

Attendance at the hunter breeders' show held following the hunt at Metamora was unusually large.

Bernard E. Hopper was chairman of the committee in charge of the show, assisted by Miss Margaret Phillips Standart, Miss Peggy Ainsworth, Miss Viola E. Hammond, William Reeve Clark, Walter O. Briggs, Jr., and Ralph L. Polk, Jr.

Miss Hammond

Miss Standart

The 116 entries were shown in 19 classes. Among those exhibiting were Edward D. Hammond, Miss Viola E. Hammond, Dr. Fred T. Murphy, Carlton M. Higbie, Elliott S. Nichols, William L. Hubbell, Frederick M. Alger, Mrs. Gail Stephens, J. Deane Rucker, Mrs. E. B. Henry, Mrs. R. J. Bartlett, Miss Florence Skae, Bernard E. Hopper, Louis Kahn, Mrs. H. B. Sherman, Ralph Stoepel, Mrs. Frederick M. Alger, Jr., Frank W. Shuell, Mrs. James Q. Goudie, Miss Geraldine Higbie, C. H. Ainsworth, William Reeve Clark, Miss Peggy Ainsworth, Mrs. J. A. Blackwood, Charles D. Pierce and Maj. Donald Henderson.

Col. Alger's March Royal was the winner of the Murphy Cup, defeating Mrs. Blackwood's Showgirl, winner of the trophy last year. For permanent possession, the cup must be won by the same horse for three successive years.

In the open jump, Mrs. Blackwood's Paint Creek was first with Col. Alger's Fagan second, and Spats, owned by Mr. Pierce, third.

An entry by E. S. Nichols was first in the pairs of jumpers class, with Mr. Pierre's entry as second, and that of Miss Ainsworth, third. In the teams of three jumpers class, Mr. Nichols' entry was first; Miss Higbie's second, and Miss Ainsworth's third.

PATRONESSES NAMED FOR SHOW

Mrs. Norbert D. Kulsavage, general chairman of the sixth annual flower show of the Countryside Improvement Association to be held Sept. 5 on the grounds of Mrs. A. D. Noble on Old Orchard Trail, announces an interesting group of patronesses who will sponsor the event.

They include Mrs. Edward F. Hammond, Mrs. Howard Bloomer, Mrs. Gustavus D. Pope, Mrs. E. A. Skae, Mrs. Luman W. Goodenough, Mrs. Frederick B. Stevens, and Mrs. F. J. Sarmiento.

The show is an annual event to stimulate interest among amateur gardeners in the cultivation of flowers. Members of the Association include residents of Orchard and Pine Lakes and the neighboring vicinity.

In addition to the exhibits which will cover a wide variety of horticultural displays, there will be the attractions of a wayside market of fresh garden produce, and a sale of home-cooked food. Mrs. Kulsavage announces.

As the hours of the show are from 2 to 8 P. M., visitors desiring to remain into the evening, will be accommodated by a buffet for which a nominal fee will be charged.

The rules of the show provide that all entries must be in the hands of Mrs. Frederick L. Ward, chairman of the committee on entries, three days previous to the exhibit. All exhibits are required to be in position before 3 P. M. Sept. 5. Prizes are to be awarded in every class, and entry blanks may be obtained from Mrs. Ward.

In addition to Mrs. Kulsavage, who is general chairman; Mrs. Noble, hostess, and Mrs. Ward, chairman of entries, others serving on committees are Miss Arlyle Ward, in charge of arrangement; Mrs. Kenzie Smith, in charge of the food sale; Mrs. Ernest Fenker, in charge of the tea tables; Mrs. C. W. Gregory, chairman of the press committee; Miss Gail Smith who will be in charge of the wayside market; Mrs. E. W. Stoddard, chairman of the correspondence committee; Mrs. Frank S. Callender in charge of the properties, and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Jr., who is chairman of the prize committee.

Among the exhibits a special class has been arranged for flowers grown and shown by children under 16 years of age.

Players Make Plans For Work Of Year

The play-reading committee of the Village Players is working steadily on programs for the coming year and other activities of the various committees of the organization will begin shortly, says C. C. Ryan, president of the Players.

A meeting of the board of directors was held at the cottage of Mrs. and Mrs. Cecil Charlton, Thendara Club, Walters Lake, Monday evening, and plans for the year were discussed. Members of the board are Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. Harry Muehlman, Dr. John Hassberger, Gordon Lafebvre and Mr. Ryan.

Members of the play-reading committee, which is formulating programs for the entire season, are as follows: Mrs. F. Farrington Holt, chairman, Mrs. Leonard Clement, Mrs. M. W. Coolidge, Mrs. W. A. F. John, Mrs. Harrison J. Stringham and J. Fred Woodruff.

The schedule calls for the first performance to take place Oct. 16. Other committee chairmen who are working toward this performance are H. Ledyard Towle, scenery, L. B. Reid, house, Harrison J. Stringham, stage, and W. A. F. John, stunts.

Mrs. Fred Ross of Willits street was hostess to members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church at her home Wednesday of last week. Miss Hazel Dennison led the devotional exercises, and W. Clarence Wright discussed "Christian Education for Young People." Mrs. Caroline Untegraff, president, conducted the meeting.
