

CLUB AND PERSONAL NEWS

(Continued on Page 4, Part 2)

(Continued on Page 4, Part 2)

She Was Named Chairman Of Committee Of Fourteen

Mrs. Joseph F. MacGregor of Oakland avenue was appointed permanent chairman of a committee which will be in charge of the sale of tickets for the grandstand during the national convention of the American Legion to be held in Detroit next month...

Mrs. MacGregor

CARILLON CONCERT

Wednesday, Sept. 2, 9 P. M. Improvisation for Carillon At Dawn... Charles W. Cadman The Blue-bells of Scotland...

W. C. T. U. To Meet Sept. 2

Mrs. William Olson will be in charge of the meeting of the W. C. T. U. which will be held at the Detroit Public Library Sept. 2...

Date Set For Finals In Sailing Races

One of the remaining events on the calendar for the Orchard Lake Country Club this month is the Grand Day for ladies on Friday, with the regular luncheon for golfers and sailors...

FROM TEE and GREEN

Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. D. J. Morland of Pontiac was the winner of the Par and Birdie Tournament at Pine Lake Country Club last Thursday...

FRANKLIN

Mrs. Charlotte Wood and Miss Mildred Wood returned Saturday from Bay View, Mich., where the official French box car which transported American Troops in France, and other developments marked the preparations during the past six weeks...

LEGION PREPARES FOR CONVENTION

DETROIT, MICH.—Announcement that grand stand seats were now on sale, the arrival here of the official French box car which transported American Troops in France, and other developments marked the preparations during the past week for the national convention of the American Legion here in September...

Mrs. Claude A. Bowlus of Yarmouth road has as her guest for several days, her sister, Mrs. B. B. McDonald of Chicago, Ill., who arrived Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Verner J. Gillett of Arlington road and her daughter, Ruth, will return this week-end from a motor trip of two weeks, during which they visited relatives and friends in Danville, O., and Terre Haute, Ind.

Rev. David Curry of the South Western Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, Pa., will leave next Wednesday to return to his parish after spending two weeks' vacation with his family on Bates street.

Social Briefs

Mr. Morgan Carter of George street spent Sunday at Riverdale, Can., where he was the guest of Miss Ruth Davenport at her summer home.

In the Kicker's Handicap Tournament held at Forest Lake Country Club Sunday the numbers drawn were 84, 85, and 86. First place went to Seale Mowal while Kropfer was fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitz of Rogers City announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Jane, on August 18 at Grace Hospital. Mrs. Pitz, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Lacombe, returned Tuesday to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lacombe of West Maple road, where she will remain for some time.

The Constance Millbrandt of street spent the past week visiting in Frenton, Mich., where she was the guest of a cousin.

Mrs. Henry Berr of Pierce street, who has spent the past 10 weeks in Ford Hospital following a serious accident, is expected to return to her home in two weeks. Her condition is reported as much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jardine and their family of Ann street have been guests for the past week of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Van Haaren of Bay City at their summer home at Tobacco Beach on Saginaw Bay.

Mr. Alex Looney of Purdy street will spend Thursday at Lapeer as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Salmon, to attend the Lapeer homecoming.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Jackson, Jr., of Buckingham road, have returned from East Tawas where they attended the funeral of Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. C. R. Jackson, which took place Sunday. Accompanying them were Mr. Jackson's sister, Mrs. Evelyn Ramsay of Angola, Ind., and Mrs. A. A. Motewheel of Detroit.

Miss Marvel Corson of Parks street will entertain Friday evening at a weiner roast in honor of Miss Betty Webb of Pleasant Ridge. Among the guests will be the Misses Roxanne and Mary Lambie of Pierce street, Miss Peggy Mills, Miss Vera Martin of Bennville avenue, the Misses Perry and Winifred Webb of Pleasant Ridge, and Miss Maude Lougheed of Detroit.

Mrs. Joseph Hoople of Ann street spent the past week at Ionia, Mich., where she visited relatives and attended the Ionia fair.

Mrs. Mathilde Berr and her son, Brock, of Detroit have returned to Birmingham after an absence of several years to occupy their former home on Frank street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trew of Villa road, who have spent the past three weeks camping at Black Lake, Mich., are expected to return this week-end.

Arthur Fowler, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fowler of Bennville avenue, is recovering from a tonsil operation this week at Providence hospital.

Leo Seigel was low in the Mid-Iron Tournament held recently at Franklin Hills Club in a 90-24. In the Kicker's Handicap, Julian

Mr. and Mrs. Park Smith of Chesterfield avenue and their daughter, Barbara, motored Sunday to Romeo where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of Villa road entertained at dinner Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hascall of Oakland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of Villa road and their son, Bobby, will leave Friday for Grand Rapids where they will be the guests of Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. C. J. Loomis, for the week-end, attending, while there, the Loomis family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trew of Villa road, who have spent the past three weeks camping at Black Lake, Mich., are expected to return this week-end.

PEARS - $1.50 Bu. Ready Monday, Aug. 31. Corner N. Woodward and Willets. Orders taken now! Phone 575

Your Every Day Drug Needs Were Never More Thriftily Priced!

Take Advantage of These Drug Savings. Special Genuine KRUSCHEN SALTS 49c. 50c TEK TOOTH BRUSH 28c. Petrolatum 79c, Lysol 69c, Marmola Tablets 69c, Aspirin 79c, Citrocarbonate 83c, Lucky Tiger 83c, Fitch Shampoo 49c, Ponds Cream 34c, Colgates 26c, Aqua Velva 34c.

One lb. "JUMBO" PEANUTS. They're good because they're fresh! 19c. "Iodogrin" $1.19. Relief From Hay Fever.

Economical DRUG STORES. 101 S. Woodward Phone 2133. Our registered pharmacists will accurately fill your prescriptions. Bring them here, and you may be confident that they will be filled with highest quality drugs by men of long experience.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

Mrs. Gladys Swensen and her daughter, Laura, are making an extended stay as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Jones of Purdy street.

Howard Looney, well known marine radio inspector, is spending several weeks as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Looney of Purdy street, before returning to New York. He has spent the past months at Grand Island, Neb., where he was established at the Constant Frequency Monitoring government station measuring wave lengths. Mr. Looney left Wednesday for Iron Mountains, in the Upper Peninsula, to accompany his sister, Miss Francis Looney, who returns to teach at Kingsford High School there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steelman and son Jack of Adams street.

La Belle's. Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts. 137 West Maple Avenue Telephone 1225. Free Parking for patrons in the large parking area just to the west of the market.

Why Pay More? Sfire Bros. are here to serve you with High Quality Foods at Right Prices. There is no reason for you to pay more! We Redeem Welfare Checks... and give 5% extra face value. FREE!! Beauti-Colored 45c Pencil Box Set (contains pencils, pens, crayons, eraser) with every purchase of 1 lb. of CADILLAC COFFEE at 39c. Campbell's Pork and Beans 4 cans for 25c. Honor Flour 24 1/2 lb. bag 49c. Pet Milk Carnation Milk 3 tall cans 18c. Campbell's Tomato SOUP 4 cans 29c. Mother Cocoa 2 lb. can 19c. 10 lb. Star Salt 18c. Gold Medal Flour 24 1/2 lb. bag 71c. Mason Jars Quarts, per doz. 75c. Pints, per doz. 65c. Weideman's Red Salmon 1 lb. can 29c. Jar Rubbers 2 doz. in pkg. 9c. Canada Dry Ginger Ale $1.49 case. Shady Lawn Salad Dressing Quart 32c. MEAT DEPARTMENT. Wilson's Certified Beef GOVERNMENT STAMPED Rolled Ribs Roast lb. 32c. Michigan Cream Cheese lb. 21c. Certified Beef Pot Roast lb. 19c. Corn Fed. Round Steak Government Stamped Beef 29c lb. Leg of Lamb Genuine Spring lb. 25c. Short Ribs of Beef Fine for baking lb. 12c. Lamb Roast Genuine Spring lb. 19c. Pork Roast Young and Tender lb. 12c. ORLING BROS. Sliced Bacon 1/2 lb. pkg. 18c. Fresh Ham Young Pig Pork lb. 19c. Chickens Fresh Dressed lb. 29c. Perch and Fillets Fresh lb. 18c. Sfire Bros. Market "The Shopping Center" 180 WEST MAPLE AVENUE