PINE LAKE PLANS BUSY MONTH

The annual water carnival was held at the club Sunday, with the open events under the sanction of the Michigan Amateur Athletic Union. These included a cross-lake swim for the McCombs Trophy, and a handicap diving contest for the President's Trophy, a handsome silver cup presented by Ralph S. Lane, president of Pine Lake Country Club.

The cross-lake swim was won by Marvin Lasky, of the Detroit Yacht Club, in 4:12 2-8. Second place was won by Larry Grajewski of the D. A. C. with Stanley Grandy, unattached, and Don Goulding of the D. A. C. third and fourth. Stanley Grandy is a brother of Walter Grandy, swimming and diving instructor at the club.

Robert Cheetham won the handicap diving contest with a total score of 115.6 points. Dave Dallman took second place, followed by Ned Defendorf and Kenneth Oxley. Of these four Cheetham had a handicap of 10 points and Dallman 5.

The winner in the closed cross-lake swim for members of the club was Homer Hunt, who won the Walter Grandy Trophy placed in competition this year for the first time. The next three places went to Bill Singleton, Bob Utley and J. W. Smith.

Winners and leaders in the children's races were:

Girls and boys, 6 to 7 years of age, Pinky Allan and Shirley Trump; girls, 8 to 10 years, Janet Gilmore, Sue Sharp, Jean McCombs and Betty Siau.

Boys, 8 to 10 years, Charles Eigelow, Bob Allan, Jr., Billy Spinning and Paul Baumgartner.

Girls, 10 to 12 years, Jane Bassett, Helen Schmidt, Virginia Cole and Shirley Williams.

Boys, 10 to 12 years, Richard Livingston, Bud Hill and Jack Mercer.

Girls, 12 to 14 years, Betty Hill, Nancy McArthur and Betty Bassett.

Pine Lake Country Club has planned an interesting schedule for the month of August. The fourth event on the calendar, third match play for women, is to be played today.

Saturday and Sunday there will be ball sweepstakes, one each day, and the second round for the Club Championship.

The club will have one of its festive evenings Aug. 13, when a buffet supper will be followed by a dance. On this day, also, there will be fourth match play for women with prizes for three blind holes.

The tournament of the Ladies District Golf Association will be held on Aug. 18, and on Aug. 20 there will be the Par and Birdie tournament for women.

A bridge luncheon will be the chief event of interest at the club Aug. 25, and on Aug. 27 will be held the final Detroit and Pontiac team play for women. Finals for the Club Championship will be played Aug. 29, with ball sweepstakes as the closing event Aug. 30.

In addition to the supper dance on the 13th, two more dances will be included in this season's social program. There will be a dance on Labor Day, Sept. 7, and one on President's Day, which falls on Sept. 26.

Mrs. Hope F. Halgren and her sister, Mrs. Horace P. Shaw, will leave next week to spend a fortnight visiting friends in New York. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dickinson of Scarsdale, and of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Burnett of Pelham Manor. Mrs. Harold Power will be in charge of Mrs. Halgren's work during her absence from the Community House.

Among the guests were Marjorie and Kathryn Walton, Mary Jane Wiley, Suzanne Wood, Jane Darton, Jean Gilbert and Patricia Tresselt of Birmingham, and Margaret and Christine Sander, Jane Vernor, Florence Neal and Elizabeth Swicher of Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kent of Pilgrim road are leaving today to visit friends on Long Island.

Arthur T. Mitford of Barbour terrace, with his nephews Cecil and Frank, were guests at a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Donnelly of Grosse Pointe, Wednesday evening.

The Detroit Club of Printing House Craftsmen will be guests of Harry Wise of Bloomfield Village at a picnic at Bloomfield Township Park Sunday afternoon. The organization includes 250 members. The program will include a golf tournament and baseball game.

Mrs. Clarence Gail of Pierce street is visiting friends in Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum of East Maple avenue returned Monday from a pleasant fishing trip over the week-end in Canada, visiting in Kingsville, Port Stanley and London, Ont.

Mrs. Thomas J. Burns of New York City, who has been the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moylan Hayes of Hunt and Evergreen roads returned to her home Wednesday afternoon.

Recent Visitor In Cleveland, O.

Miss Potter

Miss Barbara Potter of Long Lake road was the guest of her fiancee, Wharton Larned, in Cleveland last week.

Interesting Guests Are Visiting Kin

Arthur T. Mitford of Barbour terrace is entertaining a group of interesting guests from London, Eng., who are recent arrivals in Birmingham. They are his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. Bertram Mitford, and nephews, Cecil and Frank, who are planning to make an extended visit in the States.

Mr. Frank Mitford, an Oxford student, is in this country to gather material for a thesis on "The International Debt Settlement." To assist in the development of this theme, Mr. Mitford plans to spend some time in Washington, D. C., where he will study the American angle of the international situation.

He will leave for Washington later in the season, after which he will return to Birmingham to remain with his uncle until December, when he will return to England.

Mr. Cecil Mitford, who is here to make a survey of industrial conditions, expects to spend much of his time in Detroit. Later, he will leave with his mother for Toronto and Ottawa before returning to England early in the fall.

Summer Books

"A book of verses underneath the bough,
A jug of wine, a loaf of bread and Thou
Beside me singing in the wilderness—
Oh, wilderness were paradise enow!"

OMAR KHAYYAM, a verse of his Rubaiyat.

Regardless of how or where you spend your summer, there are always those "zero hours" of the day—say, between noon and 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when all life swoons from the tremelous clarity of intense heat, when absorption in some interesting book affords the only relief—And then there are those other interludes—an hour alone here and there . . . innumerable intervals when good books are the best companions! Just see our recommended summer reading. You'll find on our shelves exactly what interests you.
