DIG DOWN FOR TREASURES BURIED IN Christian Science Lecture Here Deal Proves Popular

(Editor's Note: The lecture delivered before a large audience in the Christian Science Church here Sunday, Dec. 6, by Hon. William E. Brown, C. S. D., Los Angeles, Cal., was here conducted from last week's edition of The Eccentric.)

In contemplating the dust man which saith tells us to reject it discernible immediately that he is a slave, dwelling continuously in the house of bondage...

It is high time to arouse ourselves from our spiritual slumber and dominion. Through the revelation of Christ...

The unavailability of all the so-called laws of the carnal mind; take, for instance, the so-called law of heredity...

Man believing himself to be in a mortal, is dying, is divorcing himself in the house of bondage; but when, through the teaching of Christ...

The mission of Christian Science was aptly defined by a street car motorman, whose car stopped in front of a large auditorium where a Christian Science lecture was about to be given...

Let us talk a few minutes about books. What a sense of weariness stands in a library and realizes that it would take more than the average span of life to read even a small proportion of the books contained there! In contradiction to the usual Christian Scientist belief...

The world has longed for a universal, infallible guide; for a universal measure of rectitude; and how the Christian Scientist rejoices that he is now possessed of it...

Christ Jesus understood the importance of giving his disciples a correct understanding of the Scriptures for it is related that on their walk to Emmaus he expounded the Scriptures to them until they were burning within them...

In the rush of everyday activities it will be helpful to pause occasionally and ask ourselves whether we are not being hurried by this illusion!
