

INSTALL POLICE SIGNAL SYSTEM

Bloomfield Commission Approves New Light, Call-Box Arrangement

A police signal-light and call-box system, similar to that now in use in Birmingham, is to be installed in Bloomfield Hills following its approval by the Bloomfield Hills Commission Tuesday night.

The system will be composed of five colored lights distributed at strategic points in the village, operated from police headquarters in the Barbour building. When a policeman is wanted, the desk sergeant will turn on one or all of the lights until the signal is seen by an officer on his patrol of the roads, who will then immediately phone in from the call-box and receive the message.

The lights and call boxes will be located on the Trowbridge Farms, the Whittlesley and Gray estates and the intersections of Redford and Long Lake roads and Cranbrook and Pine roads.

An Open Letter

To the People of Birmingham:

The Goodfellows' Club of Birmingham, composed of local policemen, firemen, merchants and postal carriers, are again organizing for the annual paper sale to be held Saturday, Dec. 5, 1931, for the purpose of raising money to feed and clothe the unfortunate, the unemployed and the old people whose funds are exhausted.

Every member of the Club realizes that in addition to the people we have provided for in past years, who were people that could not provide adequate food and clothes for themselves due to misfortune or old age, we have a new problem—the unemployed man and his family who, through no fault of his own, is unable to provide the necessities of life for his family and dependents and must be taken care of. Christmas cheer, toys and presents for the children are also a part of the Goodfellows' program. "No child without a Christmas" should meet a response from every heart.

Knowing full well that there are people who bought our papers on previous drives who will be unable to this year on account of unemployment, we urge those who can to co-operate and support us in our effort by coming down town and buying liberally on Saturday, Dec. 5, in order that we may care for more people than ever before throughout the cold months of the winter.

When buying our papers or giving to the Goodfellows, you may rest assured that every penny and dollar buy just that much worth of food and clothing as our papers are given to us by the printers and all other items such as sacks, and our headquarters building are donated.

In closing, remember any coin or bill will buy a Goodfellow edition. Why not let the children purchase one as a reminder that they too helped?

Yours very truly,
GOODFELLOWS CLUB.

have been kind and good and who have told us what they want.

The first letters I got last week were from Phyllis Reaney and Dorothy and Jack. Jack's was written in Eskimo language, but I had one of my Brownsies tell me what it meant and enjoyed it very much. I expect to get lots more letters this week.

Your friend,
SANTA

HENRY KIRK ABBOTT

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Henry Kirk Abbott, formerly a prominent Detroit butcher and recently a resident of Birmingham, who committed suicide because of ill health while on a visit to New Buffalo last Saturday night. He was 66 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott had made their home here with Mr. Abbott's last daughter-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. John Z. Lander. While the latter were moving from 2323 Yorkshire road to 1119 East Maple avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott went on a visit to Mr. Abbott's nephew, C. F. Abbott, in New Buffalo, where the tragedy occurred.

Mr. Abbott was born in Lapeer, moving to Detroit in 1910 where he was employed by the Thomas Glenn and Son Market. He retired several years ago.

Surviving, besides the widow and daughter, are three grandchildren, Patricia Keller of Chicago, and Betty Jo and Richard Abbott of Birmingham.

The services Tuesday were held from the S. O. Wylie Bell home for funerals, Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiating. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

From the above brief review of the 13th annual meeting of the University Press Club of Michigan you may see that newspaper makers really concern themselves with something other than the funny page.
