Barnum Junior High Christmas Play Receives Plaudits Of Large Audience

Approximately 600 people applauded with great enthusiasm the presentation "Why the Chimes Rang" which was given by the students of Barnum Junior High School on Tuesday of last week.

Much of the success of the play goes directly to Franklyn Philips, who played the part of Holgar, the peasant boy who gave the true gift and made the chimes ring, and to Victor Cushner who played the part of Holgar's small brother. Mary Wilbel and Robert Mix also acted their parts excellently.

The production, written by Raymond Alden, portrayed the story of a poor boy who wished he could go to the cathedral on Christmas eve, but allowed his smaller brother and uncle to go instead while he remained at home to care for a poor beggar woman who proved to be his grandmother. The old woman finally recovers in time to go to the cathedral with the grandson.

In opening the second act, a choir entered the rear of the auditorium and walked down the center of the aisle to the choir loft, placed on either side of the stage.

A business man, a courtier, a beautiful woman, a priest and the king each said a gift on the altar, but the chimes failed to ring. Finally Holgar, accompanied by the old woman, arrived, and Holgar knelt at the altar. Suddenly the peal of chimes was heard and Holgar was revealed as having given the perfect gift by sheltering the old woman.

Baldwin Junior Hi Cagers Drop Games To Alumni Quintets

In preparation for the opening of its regular junior high cage season, the Baldwin Junior High basketball team played two games last week, one with the Alumni from Baldwin and one with the Adams alumni.

The Baldwin squad, under the wing of Coach Wilbur Dally, put up a good fight in both games but was badly outclassed by the stronger alumni teams.

The Adam's Alumni won, 42 to 15, while the Baldwin Alumni scored 35 points to their opponents' 10.

It is expected that Coach Miles Robinson will take over the squad with the re-opening of school.

BARNUM CAGERS TROUNCE PONTIAC

First Team Wins, 18-16; Second Team Bows To Clawson, 15-5

Barnum Junior High School's basketball team split a double header played at the school Wednesday of last week.

The first team battled a quintet from Washington School in Pontiac to an 18 to 16 victory, but the second team tangled with Log Cabin of Clawson and lost, 15 to 5.

The veteran Barnum team starred on the offensive, while Washington played a better defensive game than did the Maize and Blue. Barnum scored many points on a slow deliberate offense with Jones leading the attack with a total of eight points.

The second squad managed to hold the larger Clawson team in check until the second half, but at the opening of the third quarter the visitors had things much their own way until the end of the game. High score man was Cluff of Clawson who sunk two field goals and one foul shot.

The first team lined up as follows:

Two-Month Season For Fish-Spearing To Open Tonight

LANSING—The winter season for spearing through the ice on Michigan's inland lakes and non-trout streams opens at midnight, Thursday, Dec. 31. The season will remain open through January and February.

Last year spearing was permitted only on the inland lakes during the period "when the lakes were frozen over." Through a change made by the 1931 Legislature, only two months of winter spearing is permitted.

It is unlawful to use an artifical light in spearing on either lakes or streams.

The following species may be taken with a spear during January and February: carp, suckers, mullet, redhorse, sheepshead. lake trout, smelt, pike (great northern, grass pike or pickerel), muskellunge, whitefish, ciscoes, pilotfish or menominee, whitefish, dogfish and garpike.

"Christian Science" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, Dec. 27.

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me" (John 14:1).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Science is an emanation of divine Mind, and is alone able to interpret God aright. It has a spiritual, and not a material origin, and is a divine utterance,—the Comforter which leadeth into all truth" (p. 127).

Eight Teams On Schedule Include Four Class B Schools

In accordance with the new state ruling, only eight games have been scheduled for the 1932 football season at Baldwin High. Next year's season will start one week later than usual and the opening contest will be with St. Mary's of Orchard Lake instead of with Pontiac High as in the past.

Four Class B schools will be played, making this program one of the fairest in years for the Maples.

Baldwin will start with an inexperienced line, but will have an excellent backfield.

Harry Brelsford and John Shepherd, varsity ends, are returning. Cushing and Laughlin will probably step up to the regular tackle berths. There are no guards or centers in sight.

Hunt and Bunyan will again be present in the backfield, the former for the fourth year. Bunyan has had two years of experience. McBride, Gackleberg and Schwarze are also expected to see action on the varsity squad next year.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 24—St. Mary's here.
Sept. 30—*Port Huron, here.
Oct. 8—*Grosse Pointe, there.
Oct. 22—*Ferndale, there.
Oct. 28—Cranbrook, there.
Nov. 4—Dearborn, here.
Nov. 11—Hazel Park, here.
Nov. 24—*Royal Oak, here.

(* Denotes S. E. A. A. league games.)
