WE HAD IT SAID BY—Ray Palmer, member of the school board. "Now when I was on the school board in Highland Park, a local Highland Parker bought $25,000 worth of the bonds of the school board. When we offered them for sale to meet a re-funding proposition such as we have offered here, we were told to get someone in Birmingham to get these bonds. There are so many investors here, that issue ought to look good to some of them, and hope you'll hear from a few of them before the outsiders get in here on board meeting night, Mar. 2."

Teachers Attend County Institute Sessions Next Friday, Feb. 20; Close School For Day

All schools of Oakland County will be closed next Friday, Feb. 20, so that teachers, principals and superintendents may attend the annual county teachers' institute meetings in Pontiac. Supt. Clarence Vliet and teachers and principals of the Birmingham schools will attend the county institute meetings en masse. The institute meetings en masse, under the leadership of educators of national reputation who have fortunately been secured to be in Detroit the week following for the national meeting of Superintendents of Schools. Speakers for the county institute include: Dr. William C. Bagley, Teachers' College, Columbia University; Dean John W. Withers, dean of the school of education, New York University; Dr. Walter C. Ellis, professor of education, Leland Stanford University; and Julia Letheld Hahn, specialist in elementary education, who is at present taking work for her doctor's degree at Columbia University. From Sunday night, Feb. 22, through Thursday night, Feb. 26, Supt. Vliet will be attending sessions of the Superintendents' division of the National Education Assn. in Detroit. A few of the principals and special supervisors from the Birmingham school system will attend special meetings also during that week. More than 15,000 educators are expected in Detroit for the sessions. Last year Supt. Vliet attended similar sessions for superintendents held in Atlantic City, and the two years previous attended the sessions held in Boston and in Dallas.

A tall, gaunt, clumsy man... Today, on the anniversary of his birth, we honor this great man among great men—Lincoln. In him we observe personified the rugged honesty of the backwoodsman, the courage of the pioneer, the sincerity of a simple, kindly soul. Lincoln—the national hero closest to our hearts—is even closer today because Time has brought a truer appraisal of his sterling qualities.
