FELLOWSHIP CLUB GIVES PARTY

A grand march during which everyone was presented with an old-fashioned Valentine, featured the dancing party and musical program of the Fellowship Club held in Bloomfield Park auditorium last Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thornberry and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Forbes led the grand march.

Old-fashioned circle two-steps, square dances, waltzes, and fox trots were played by the string ensemble for the dancing party, following which luncheon was served to the 124 participants.

Preceding the dancing, a musical program was given, under the direction of Mr. Don Terry. Harry and Arthur Kane sang several solos each, and Harry Taschner gave a buck-and-wing dance. Wm. G. Schwalle played a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Schwallie. Frank Churchill and his son, Allen, played a harmonica duet, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Churchill on the piano.

Mr. Taschner was chairman of arrangements for the affair, and served also as toastmaster. Guest arrangements were: Roy Meyers, Percy Parkins and Harvey Muskatman.

Household Club Plays Basketball

Tonight basketball practice and play will be started by girls of the Club for Household Employees, sponsored by Mrs. James Patton, in the Pierce street school gymnasium, from 8 to 10:30 p. m. All eligible girls are urged to join the club tonight at the Pierce school, ready to take part in the basketball practice. Some form of recreation is indulged in every other Thursday night by the club members.

Hills Gardeners Aid Flower Show

Members of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural Society are cooperating with flower show officials for the annual North American Flower Show which will be held Thursday from New York last Thursday through Saturday, at the Army on Jefferson avenue. Devoted to just east of the Belle Isle bridge, just 14 to 22 inclusive.

There will be 10 gardens, so arranged as to give the appearance of one large garden taking up the entire hill.

Mrs. Harry L. Wallace sailed last Thursday from New York to attend the wedding of Miss Virginia Kingswood Booth in Copenhagen, Denmark, Mar. 1.

Architects Design Scenery For 'Boarding-House' Play

Green walls, grass the living room scene "At Mrs. Beaudry" and for the bedroom, background wallpaper appropriate to the mid-decades. English boarding-house environment has been designed with accessories.

T. Adams Rice of the Detroit City theater group assisted in designs and builds sets, but for three-act performance for the public of Birmingham and the Hills. The Players decided to utilize talent from among their own members. Fred Farrar and Harry Mathman are being built, however, in addition to the help of Fred, who traveled with the Civic top show directed by T. Adams Rice each night.

Round-Table Fellowship Gatherings Are Planned

A group of men and women from St. James Episcopal Church and from Christ Church, Church of the Holy Trinity, and St. Paul's, will meet on Monday of each week during the month of "Round-Table Fellowship" gatherings, Feb. 22 to March 25. Meetings will be held in the new Y. W. C. A. building. Quiet moments in the chapel will precede the supper, such of the Monday evenings, followed by singing and after-dinner speakers. Two city periods will be held each Monday, for men and women, and for men alone, with additional periods for young people. "Great Characters Along Life's Highway" will include biological sketches of Saxonville, John Wesley, Dost, and St. Francis of Assisi. A symposium "The Home in the Development of Personal Life" will stress the questions of leisure time in the home, conditions which create neglected or dependent children, and situations which are responsible for the perplexes of the children in later life. "Religion of Science to Man" is studying the question of whether a new universe is possible, will be the subject for a special round-table discussion by Prof. John H. Mayskens of the University of Michigan, reviewing personality as a social product.

Singing School Meets Tonight

Tonight the old-fashioned singing school holds forth at the Barnum Parent-Teacher association meeting, beginning at 8 p. m. With a horn more than 70 years old, Julius Wenzel will lead the old-time orchestra. "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen" will be sung by Miss Ruth Campbell. "Oh, No, John" will be Mrs. Eva de Vlieger's duet with Raymond Pack. Solos will also be sung by Flag Franklin and Emerson Brown.

Church Group Meets

Mrs. H. T. Ellerly's church group of the First Methodist Episcopal church meets next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert M. Wagner on Woodland avenue, for a potluck luncheon and general business and social session.
