

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

Prohibition To Be Discussed

Prof. J. J. Sherman of the Detroit City College department of political science, discussed present-day problems connected with the tariff, at the Monday night meeting of the Forum for Men and Women in the Community House.

Musicle Gives Exchange Program

Exchanging a program with the Tuesday Musical of Royal Oak, members of the Thursday Musicle gave a program yesterday afternoon at the Methodist Church in Royal Oak.

Many Dinners Precede Village Players Dance Saturday Night

For the Village Players dance, fourth in a series of six, celebrated Saturday night in the Playhouse on Chester street.

Judging School To Feature This Year's Flower Show

A judging school, for those women who are often called upon to be judges at flower shows, will feature the Flower Show Mar. 14 to 22 at the Detroit Naval Armory.

ORCHESTRA HALL Friday Eve., Mar. 6

Saturday Mat., Mar. 7 J. E. Williamson Distinguished Pianist and Vocalist

BEAUTY AND TRAGEDY Under the Sea

Illustrated by A Merveilleuse New Array of Submarine Nautical Pictures Buy Seats Early Thousands Thrill Away Before

GOSSARD Gossard combinations contour the figure to such smooth, unbroken symmetry under the most clinging fashions...

Literary Club Holds Luncheon

An outstanding event of the coming week will be the annual luncheon of the Women's Literary Club, Wednesday, Feb. 27, at 12 noon in the women's lounge of the Community House.

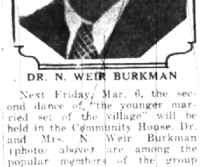

ENTERTAINMENT SPEAKER FOR LUNCHEON

Mrs. Ralph Stone was hostess at a luncheon Monday in the Bloomfield Hills Country Club honoring Mrs. F. Stuart Foote of Chicago.

Other luncheon guests Monday included Mrs. Thomas W. Taylor, Mrs. Frank L. Bradley, Mrs. John Endicott, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. William G. Barry, Mrs. Matthew B. Whiteley, Mrs. Walter G. Morley, Mrs. Cyrus S. Smith, Mrs. Frank W. Camp, Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth, Mrs. H. A. O'Neil, Mrs. Sarah S. Smith, Mrs. Frank W. Camp, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Charles Garrison, Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy and Mrs. James J. Daffin.

Younger Married Set Plan Another Dance for Mar. 6

Next Friday, Mar. 6, the second dance of the younger married set of the village will be held in the Community House.

Christ Church Auxiliary Arranges Keyhill Lecture

Tom Keyhill, with the gift of tongue, straight from the thick of three wars and three revolutions, poet, playwright, biographer and orator, world-traveler (as far as to the moon and back), sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook, speaks tomorrow night in the Guild Hall.

Interest Centers In Nursery School Lecture Next Monday

With the first lecture already given in the course of Friends in Education, sponsored by the American Association of University Women, in the Community House yesterday by President Constance Warren of Sarah Lawrence College, interest centered now in the second lecture on "Education of the Nursery Child," scheduled for Monday, 27-28 m. in the Baldwin Public Library.

The reasons for and against this type of school will be given, and Mrs. Harley will discuss in what respects nursery schools are essential or non-essential. She speaks with authority, for she has had much training and experience.

Mrs. Charles Parks of Merrill street will entertain this afternoon for the benefit of the Rebekah lodge, serving a pot-luck dinner at 7 p. m.

Mrs. H. H. Corbin is entertaining members of the American Legion Auxiliary today for their pot-luck dinner and business meeting at her home on Chesterfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dick entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Stanton of Chicago in their home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. James A. Blackwood served a luncheon at her home on Saturday afternoon for a group of Bloomfield equestrians.

On the occasion of her daughter Susie's fourth birthday party, Mrs. W. H. Schuchert helped her entertain 10 small guests, celebrating the event Saturday afternoon at the Hitchcock home on Randall court.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Stanton of Chicago in their home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Edward H. Jewett, with her daughter, Mrs. Dan A. Davis, will reopen her Bloomfield Hill home soon, after spending several months at Melbourne, Fla.

Mrs. Max J. Palmer of East Java, who is in Stralm Beach, Fla. for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. Frederick Riker, who moved last week into the Harbour Terrace, from Tooting Lane, will leave soon for a winter's sojourn at Miami Beach, Fla. in honor of their week-end guests.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard A. Blackburn of Old Salem Court entertained at dinner for a small informal group on Saturday evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Booth of Cranbrook called Friday on the S. S. Saturnia to enjoy a two months vacation in southern Italy.

Mrs. Frank H. Britton of Somerville drive, Beverly Hills, was surprised Tuesday on her birthday by 16 of her friends who gave a bridge party for her. Prizes were won by Mrs. Earl Stutz, Mrs. Dalton Beck, Mrs. Lester Waido and Mrs. Milton H. Bell.

Mrs. and Mrs. Merrit Schlaack of Hanna street were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kemp of Fairview avenue.

Tomorrow night a Masonic dance will be held in the Temple, with everyone welcome. Blue Lodge committee members are Stockton King and Don Plumstead, with Harry Mudge and Verne Griffith as in charge of general arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Slusser of Pierce street entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Main of Cleveland, O., as their Sunday guests.

Murray & Goudy ARCHITECTS Birmingham Office First State Sav. Bank Bldg. Phone BR. 1992

Sponsors Bridge Lessons Contract bridge lessons, sponsored by the Community House, will start the second week in March, probably on Wednesday.

Play Final Bridge Games Final games of the Exchange Club bridge tournament were played in the Community House last night, followed by the serving of refreshments.

Spring Is Just Around the Corner PAPERING PAINTING DECORATING G. F. GRENZENBACH

Lovely Bride-to-be Entertained In Hills

Miss Suzanne House entertained Monday at a luncheon for Miss Frances Shanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shanley of Fort Wright, Spokane, Wash., whose engagement to John R. MacManus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus, was announced last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stone plan to leave tomorrow by motor to spend six weeks in the Carolinas.

Will handle your dog at the Detroit Dog Show and win! ERICK BERGHSHAGEN Licensed American Kennel Club Handler JAGERSBO KENNELS Boarding - Training - Showing

Protect Yourself Against "Flu" Infection! Keep Your Mouth And Nose Aseptic THE NEED THE REMEDY WHERE TO OBTAIN SUPPLIES

Woodward Pharmacy GROVER E. COOK, Ph. G. FIRST NATIONAL BANK BLDG.

Unequaled Savings IN Quality Foods and Meats Specials for Friday and Saturday

3 Dozen Sunkist California Oranges 4 Indian River Grape Fruit Good Quality Size For $1.00

3 lbs. Spare Ribs 1 qt. Sauer Kraut 2 lbs. Freshly Ground Hamburger 1 lb. Vitalax Cottage Cheese For $1.00

LENTEN SEASON SUGGESTIONS Delicious Appetizing Cheese, Fresh, Wholesome Vegetables, Fresh, Smoked or Salted Fish. Let these suggestions with many others we offer each day help you plan the most appetizing Lenten menu.

Olsen's Market 120 S. Woodward Phones 648 and 649