Rotary Anns Introduce New Piano-Accordion at Banquet

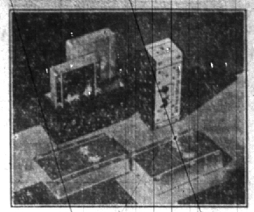

Piano-accordion numbers, on new instruments union in village musical circles as well as in the outside world of the arts featured the entertainment for Rotarians which immediately followed the banquet given to them by Rotary Anns last night in the Community House. Included in the selections played by the piano-accordion team, Don Underwood and Miss Wiegand of Pontiac, and "Sweet Melodies" number composed by Mr. Underwood and just off the publishers' presses. For unadulterated humor, the broadcasting skit given by members of the Sophomore class at Baldwin high school, carries off all honors. With Thomas Schooley as the announcer, starting off with the incorrect time, the caricatured events of a broadcasting day were quickly presented to a highly amused audience. Kenneth Bottomley conducted the setting-up exercises; then came Mrs. Pennyfeather's recipes by Mary Palmer. Torrents of applause greeted the dramatic rendition of "The Tossed Her a Goodbye" by LaTosca and James Stone presented by Jack Sitta and James Stone in a "Cecil and Sally" skit. James O'Leary and Marjorie Kidder with the kiddies followed, started by Bruce Hurson, Marjorie Kidder, Edward Trebilcock, Hermin McCormick and Henry McCurry. "Rudy Vallee" was represented on the program by Harry Breitford then station S-D-P-H signed off. Miss Marie Taylor and Mrs. Caro Darling were the faculty advisors for the Sophomore broadcasting skit.

Karel M. Rickerson of Larches drove then presented a novel ventriloquist entertainment, with his "Samba," playing on the foibles of known members of the Rotary group present.

Dancing and cards rounded out an evening of perfect entertainment. Arrangements for the affair were in charge of Mrs. H. H. Gardner. Mrs. Charles Randall, president of the Rotary Anns, gave the word of welcome to Rotary Club husbands at the banquet which opened the evening's pleasure.

ART and MUSIC

Presents Greek Tragedy
Tonight's Muse, Catopoli will present Sophocles' tragedy, "Electra" at Orchestra Hall, following New York, Boston and Chicago appearances. Admirers say that she is to modern Greece, what Paganini was to Italy and Sarah Bernhardt to France. With even her costumes for "Electra" are handwoven linens and silks, made in Greece, the presentation will preserve every detail of the classic spirit of Greek tragedy.

"Operalogues" Given
Thaddeus Wronski opens a series of "operalogues," free to the public, in his Detroit studio Saturday at 8 p. m., with "La Boheme," following on Mar. 7 with "Carmen," Mar. 14 with "La Tosca," and Mar. 21 with "Madam Butterfly." The operas will be illustrated by phonograph records, and Mr. Wronski will explain the libretto, and discuss the dramatic and musical value of the works in the interests of the Detroit Civic Opera company.

Concertmaster Leads
Tlyn Schkolnik, versatile concertmaster, will serve as guest conductor for the popular concert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this Saturday, dividing honors with the Border Scottish Chorus group of English folk songs. Beethoven's third "Lennon" overture, Brahms' "Second Symphony" and

Extension Group Studies Lighting
Mrs. Edward Vanderhoef entertained the Home Furnishings extension group at the Poplar school, Thursday afternoon, for a study of lighting under the direction of Mrs. Charles Spangue. Cheerful, well-lighted homes have light distributed in such a way as to eliminate the strong glare that are so irritating to the eyes and that cause most of the eye troubles prevalent among the children of today, was one of the points stressed by the leader.

Making of lamp shades, studies and examples of attractive shades made from wallpaper and wrapping paper were shown; then slip covers for chairs of all types were displayed, as the finished work of members. Luncheon was served following study and discussion. For the next meeting of the group, Mrs. Ford Hutchinson of Lincoln avenue will be hostess. Mrs. Elizabeth Weld, of Michigan State College, organizes and conducts this extension work.

Stag Dinner Party Given
Mrs. Emil G. Olin of Southfield avenue, entertained Friday evening with a surprise stag dinner party in honor of the birthday of her husband, a charming patriotic decorative scheme was used, the table cover being fashioned to represent the American flag. Baskets of candy and favors carried out a predominance of red, white and blue. Guests were Miss Snader and Ellis Snader of Detroit, Vernon Griffith, Percival Burnett, Charles Back, Frank Smith, Charles Olin, Arthur Mason, Michael Jaxko, Charles Belya, Ellis Kowalski, and Eric Frazen. Cards were played during the opening.

Held Reunion Tea
"From Oak Chamber to Furry," a retrospect illustrated with lantern slides, by Mrs. George B. Swain, featured the Kamp Kaidreer reunion tea held in the Community House Saturday. Camping as a new factor in education, was discussed by Miss Ethel McCormick, a professor in physical education and social director in the office of the dean of women of the University of Michigan. Miss Helen Atkins played a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Virginia Reame at the piano. Hostesses were Mrs. Thomas A. Neal and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson. Mrs. Joseph F. Pope was chairman of the refreshments committee.

Firemen Dance Mar. 17
Firemen of Birmingham and their friends will dance at the Community House Mar. 17, at their annual house affair. Roland Reynolds, Stanley Pepperal and Charles Fredericks compose the committee in charge of arrangements.
