

HAY HIGH SCORER IN BOWLING LOOP

Average scores in the Monday Night League of the Birmingham Bowling Alley, compiled recently, give R. B. Hay, Commercial artist living at 503 Edgewood avenue, the highest average, 186 during the first half of the season. H. Jagger is second with 184; H. Hill third with 182; R. Barkell fourth with 181 and G. Mints fifth with 180. Three bowlers, E. Grayson, R. Chissas and R. Brown are tied with 256 for high individual score, in single games, while Hay is high individual scorer for the three game division with 648. Kurth Realty team won high score honors in both the single and three-game tests with 1,017 in the former and 2,941 in the latter.

The Lesson-Sermon is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, January 18.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all that getting get understanding. Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many" (Prov. 4:7, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let neither fear nor doubt overshadow your clear sense and calm trust; that the recognition of life harmonious—as Life eternally in—cannot strip any rational soul of, or belie in, that which Life is, or" (p. 495).

Our Scrap Book

EVERYTHING MUST CHANGE

MOST of us are engaged in trying to get our affairs on an automatic basis. We seek the infallible investment, the bonds or stocks we can buy and forget. We want our businesses to operate smoothly while we play golf and fish.

Occasionally we seem to appreciate this heavenly condition; but if we practice our theories too stubbornly, the day always comes when we discover that our securities have shrunk to half their former value and that our business is close to insolvency.

Everything insists upon its right to change. While we sleep, inventors perfect new devices that undermine the assets back of our infallible bonds. While we dash, the women shorten their skirts and put on silk stockings, and our cotton goods vanishing.

The lesson that everything must change is hard for middle age to learn. After 40 we are inclined to become tired. We have encouraged change all our lives, and have fought the establishment. The world has heard us and has rewarded us. Now we are entrenched and are looking for peace and quiet. We close our minds and choose our companions among those who think and feel as we do.

Meantime, the gates are being stormed by men of youthful minds and ideals, some older and some younger than ourselves. What we consider good enough doesn't suit them at all.
That's why so many men who are going well at 40 are floundering at 60, just when they should be in their prime.
—William Feather—

THE GIFT OF PLODDING

It is the gift of plodding. It is not a popular axiom just now when all the world is in a mad rush; but success comes from plodding. The young man who determines, above all things, else, to become rich, and who closes his eyes to everything but the almighty dollar, who stops at nothing, and spares no time or pains in the effort for wealth, but who at the end of his life, can write his check for a million dollars, no doubt considers that he has won success. The scholar who burns the midnight oil, who turns deaf ears to the siren voice of pleasure and buries himself in his books, succeeds in winning knowledge. The statesman who bends every energy towards mastering statecraft is successful in becoming the great leader of his party. They all succeed, and why? Because they have possessed the gift for plodding.

—Sir Wilfred Laurier.
A Round Trip
"I wonder why it is that fat men are always good natured?"
"Probably because it takes them so long to get mad clear through."
—Caper's Weekly.
