"Dear old father sternly, I don't like that young man you go out with."
"Yash!" retorted daughter.
"Well, don't worry, you're simply in love with him, too." Cincinnati Enquirer.

MENUS FOR CHILD HEALTH OFFERED
Michigan Tuberculosis Association Disburses Well-Balanced Diet Information
As the first of its contributions to the efforts being made by Michigan health and education groups to protect children against the results of depression, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association is distributing gratis throughout the state at the present time a complete nutrition folder entitled "Foods for Growing Boys and Girls."
The folder is so arranged that well balanced meals, including all the fundamentals of diet, can be arranged merely by selecting one item from each of several classes of foods. A unique feature of the folder is the fact that, although meals prepared from it are well balanced, no technical nutrition terms whatever are used.
Emphasis is placed in the leaflet on inclusion of fruits, vegetables, and whole grains in the diet. These items, probably the first to be dropped from the daily menu when less money is spent for food, are nevertheless of major importance in maintaining the health of boys and girls of school age.
Prepared particularly for families with children, the folder is being made available through the school system. Housewives who wish copies may get them without charge by sending name and address to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, Lansing.
Never a Worry
"Yes," said Paddy, "the last time you saw me I was just about finished. Hadn't even any coal in the house."
"Poor old Paddy! And are you all right for coal now?"
"Sure, I've sold the stove." Newark News.

Harry Bissett Paints 'President's' Portrait
As a surprise tribute, Mr. Harry E. Bissett painted a life-size portrait oil likeness of the president, of the Silent Automatic Corp., William H. C. Taylor, of Lake Pointe Shores, his friend for 15 years, and presented the painting to the club meeting of the national sales convention held in the Statler Hotel last Wednesday.
Landscapes have always been a favorite painting-hobby with Mr. Bissett, he has painted many portraits as well, and the tribute to his "president" was considered as the best thing he has ever painted.
In order to keep him from going out at night, Mrs. James Gould of Duluth, Minn., burned her husband's best trousers.

THEATERS
SHUBERT-LAFAYETTE
David Belasco's "It's A Wise Child" enters its fifth and last week at the Shubert-Lafayette theater next Sunday. Frances Dale and Russell Hicks are featured in this comedy-classic of the adventures of a young lady and her lawyer friend, the family doctors, the ice-man, and sundry others.
"It's A Wise Child" concerns the things that happen when a young lady tells a white-washed that makes several people see red.
"Wise Child" will be followed at the Lafayette by Arthur Hopkins Plymouth Theater success "Torch Song," featuring Martha Lorber. "Torch Song" is a saga of a travelling salesman and his cabaret sweetheart, and is rich in humor and tense with drama. "Torch Song" will be the third popular-priced Shubert offering at the Lafayette.
CASS THEATER
The popular comedy "Lysistrata" which has been the talk of the country since it was brought to revival in Philadelphia last Spring, will come to the Cass Theater for two weeks opening Monday night, Feb. 2. There are 29 players in "Lysistrata," the company travels by special train and three baggage cars are necessary to carry the scenery and effects of the production. "Lysistrata" was designed and directed by the famous artist Norman Bel Geddes. The adaptation was written by Gilbert Seldes and special music composed by Leo Ornstein. It has just concluded an engagement of three months in Chicago and seven months in New York, where it ran all through the summer.
"Lysistrata" is the story of the first revolt of women against war. Under the leadership of the great of the Lucy Stoner, Lysistrata, the women of Greece band together and refuse to have any contact with the men of the nation until they end the wars which have devastated the country for 20 years. A truce has been declared and the men return anxious for the comforts of home. But they find only dead fires and recalcitrant women. The result is a serious and laugh-making situation. Although it was written 2342 years ago, "Lysistrata" is as fresh and timely today as when it was written.

STATE FAIR COLISEUM
Moston Temple opens its twenty-third annual Shrine Circus, Feb. 2, in the State Fair Coliseum. The crippled and orphaned children of Detroit will be the guests of honor at the first afternoon performance and the Boy Scouts of Detroit will be guests at the Monday and Tuesday evening performances.
Thirty clowns will furnish amusement for the children between the acts.
The circus will be opened with a gorgeous spectacle, "Solomon and the Queen of Sheba," in which costumes alone are insured at $80,000. It is estimated that the value of the elephants, lions, horses and equipment in this spectacle approaches a quarter of a million dollars.
There will be afternoon and evening performances for two weeks.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.
Long Distance is Fast, Convenient and LOW IN COST
Long distance telephoning has three features which make it attractive to everyone.
It is fast. In a very few seconds, usually, you can be talking with your party; even calls to distant points usually are put through while you hold the line.
It is convenient. You need not go to any trouble—just pick up your telephone and give the name of the city or town and the telephone number you are calling to the long distance operator. If you do not know the number, ask Information.
It is low in cost. You can telephone 100 miles for less than a cent a mile, and longer distances for even less per mile.
