

Sometimes I wonder just how empty are the lines... existence as only a place and time in which to acquire things...

What Bloomfield Township is doing for the unemployed... R. J. Corryell, township supervisor...

Yesterday's bright sun, after several days of unpleasant cloudiness and icy pavements...

Our curiosity aroused, we sought to learn the difference between the words "select" and "elect"...

During the amusing arguments over the problem of what taxicab driver shall get that badge...

To dance or not to dance, that's the question... The probabilities are that Terpsichorean gratians in Birmingham...

Adh Cantor sees prosperity for one industry during 1931... the ink manufacturing business...

Our sports editor, who (doubles in pain) is seeking a dignified and appropriate nickname for Cranbrook School...

Brokers, saddened by what they know as The Depression, find a gleam of delight, nowadays, in recounting tales of "Crash"...

"Postmaster Race" Is Open Until Jan. 13... With the final date of filing applications for the Birmingham postmaster...

Library Report Shows Great Increase of Readers in 1930... Birmingham's interest in books during 1930 was greatly increased...

Trunks sent to and from Detroit Railway Station... SHAW BROS. GARAGE 136 Broadway

FURNITURE STORAGE... 281 Broadway

ROBINSON SEES GRAND JURY PROBE DEAY

County Investigation May Be Geared Up Until Feb., He Says

NAMED BY VOORHIES Oakland County's long-awaited grand jury investigation probably will not be begun until the beginning of this month...

Following a conference with Robinson and the county board of auditors Monday, Voorhies said that Robinson would devote all of his time to conducting the grand jury investigation...

When all's said and done, perhaps it's best to say that a man was an "elect" rather than "selected" for an office...
