EXCHANGITES HEAR MUSICAL PROGRAM
 Birmingham Exchanges Tuesday noon at the Community House were given a musical treat when Eddie Edwards, local pianist and music teacher, presided over the program. Mr. Edwards accompanied on the piano two vocalists, Mrs. Vera Schultz, of Birmingham, and Margaret Pitzer, of Detroit. Mrs. Schultz sang "Friend of Mine," and "Keep on Top!" Miss Pitzer sang "Pale Moon" and "My Laidie."

Both singers were enthusiastically applauded. Miss Dorothy Barlowe, talented Detroit pianist, played a selection by Bachmannoff and a light spring melody by Stindling.

STORE MOVES
 The Wolverson Warehouse, which has been at 282 South Woodward avenue since its opening in Birmingham, is now located at 258 East Maple avenue.

A Promising Suggestion
 "Have you made every conceivable effort to collect this account?" Isn't there anything else we can do?
 "Well, sir, what about buying an Irish Sweepstakes ticket again for 'im to win'?"
 "Passing Show."

Not Changed Much
 Bostonian - You'd never think that this street was originally a coal path.
 Visitor (with lowered gaze at girls passing) - It appears to be a good deal of a calf path, even now.
