Tricks Of Movieland

Fog is Manufactured and Night Scenes Employ Numerous Artificial Devices to Provide Realism for You Screen Fans

Night fires are easily faked. By Central Press Staff. Actors listening to mineral oil, used to make movie fog.

An interesting study of a night scene during the war, filmed in Hollywood stopped the fog permitted to drift. "Mineral oil" fog hangs in the air sometimes a half-hour and realistic fog scenes, with conversation, can be filmed indoors. The fine particles of oil do not harm fine draperies, yet they cling to clothing and shine much better than does water.

The tricks of shooting night movies are many. In the past, better sound came to the screen, many "night" scenes were shot under a noon-sun and later were tinted to give the dark effect. Lightning is one of the most expensive night features to produce artificially and quite difficult to control. Each lightning flash costs at least $20. E. M. M. WINS FIRST HALF

Cops 2 More Games For Lap Title In Organization League

The Eastern Michigan Motorbus nine won the first round championship of the organization division of the Y. M. C. A. softball league when they whipped the Goodfellows, 11 to 3, Tuesday for their seventh consecutive win. Friday the busmen handed the Firemen a 4 to 3 rubbing in a game that went eight innings. They met DeMolay tonight in the first game of the second round.

Eastern Michigan appears to have a fine chance to annex the championship of the league in the second half of the schedule, but there is every possibility that some unknown team will have a good night and hand the transit men a loss or two. Starting badly, the Lions and DeMolays appeared to have no chance in the league, but in the last few weeks they have recovered and both are likely to offer serious opposition to the leaders of the first round.

Eastern Michigan 4, Firemen 3. Western's sacrifice scored Powers with the winning run in the last half of the eighth inning to give the Eastern Michigan Motorbus nine their sixth consecutive win last Friday, defeating the Firemen, 4 to 3. More than 250 people witnessed the game.

The victory gave the busmen undisputed possession of first place in the organization division of the Y. M. C. A. softball league. The game was close throughout and neither team had an advantage of more than one run at any time. Moore did the flinging for the Firemen while Griffith was the winning hurler. Dave Easter, a Michigan hot corner man, and Reynolds, Firemen short-stop, played fine defensive games.
