WOMEN WHO PLAY FAIR . . .

. . . . They were talking about his wife

He listened.

"My dear, she's so careless, she never pays any bills . . . and he makes a good salary, too!"

"Oh, well," said the other, "maybe it's careless to forget to pay for several months, but no real harm is done."

"No harm done? . . . Listen, I'll tell you just how much harm there really is. I know—my father was a credit manager."

This promised to be interesting, so Mr. Stark listened.

"Jane, there's not one of us who wasn't been helped out some time or other by that good old stand-by—Credit! And I think it's up to everybody to play fair with creditors by paying as promptly as they should.

"Mrs. Stark thinks that paying bills several months later is just as good as paying when they're due. How would she feel if her husband delayed her allowance? Creditors are just humans with lots of bills to pay, too . . . and they depend upon us to keep our word and pay the bills when due."

As Mr. Stark walked away, he heard the woman say, "Paying bills promptly is one good habit that every one can easily form," and he made a mental note to help his wife pay their bills when due.

Let us help you form this habit. Bill fretting will be at an end, and your good credit standing will be a thing of pride.
