Responsibility and Compensated

Birmingham post-graduate of service and co-operation. "I want to say to you that your Village of Birmingham is better for having the post within its gates," he said, addressing Mr. Allen.

Foreman Biggest Convention

James H. Bisset, foreman of the meeting from Detroit where he had been attending to his duties as national adjutant in connection with the coming national convention, traced the growth of the Legion to its present position of prominence in national affairs with membership of 962,000 men. The national convention, to be held in Detroit next September, will see the Legion pass the 10,000,000 mark and will be the largest gathering in the organization's history, he predicted.

WINS HONORS FROM ILLINOIS ACADEMY

Reed Buchanan Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don O. Scott, 515 Pilgrim Road, Birmingham, graduate of the Illinois Academy at Lake Forest, Ill., at that school's 32nd annual commencement exercises last Saturday.

Aside from his scholastic honors, Scott participated in many extra-curricular activities. He was a member of the Academy Glee club and Follies. He will enroll next fall as a freshman at the University of Michigan.

Quotes Dry Report

"Lead of the licensed saloon of former times she said, we now have the unlicensed speakeasy flourishing in its place, selling its wares to youth without restrictions."

She referred to the Wickersham report in refutation of the claim of prohibitionists that crime would be reduced one-half if the 18th amendment were put into effect, pointing out that the report shows crime has actually increased since 1929.

Explains Purpose

"We must take the hip flask out of the pockets of our young people, and poison, death-dealing liquor out of the hands of the nation, and give our best efforts to the solution of the prohibition problem," she continued.

Explaining the purpose of the Woman's Organization for Prohibition Reform, she claimed that the prohibitionists are not working for temperance. They are working for total abstinence. Our organization is working for temperance, she declared.

Outlines Citizen's Duties

Judge Doty, the last speaker on the program, gave advice to the citizens. "The really great soldiers of the world have all been citizens who fought bravely for their country when the need arose, and then when the crisis passed have been good citizens again," he said.

"The need for good soldier citizens is especially great now when economic conditions are stretched to the limit," he declared, and suggested that his listeners could do the most good for both themselves and others if they would "look up, laugh, love and live."

Predicts Solution

"We have been developed commercially and industrially to the full limit," he said. "These problems are being solved. Now other problems are coming up. These are the relation of man to man and of man to the community in which he lives. But these, too, will be solved."

He congratulated the American Legion on its ideals and record of service, and compared it with the younger generation for its ability to work out its proper solution. "I predict a safe solution for each of the problems now confronting you," he said, "if you are willing to leave the future of the country to you and to the youth of the nation."

Other district Legion officers were named as follows: Michael S. Courtney, Flint, adjutant and finance officer; James H. Jeffers, Pontiac, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. Charles Jatho, pastor, Royal Oak, chaplain; William C. Parr, Royal Oak, and Dr. A. J. Loefer, Pontiac, will be appointed by the commandant later.

The Legionnaires adopted resolutions recommending Paul Eger, Joliet, as state commander and Mr. Ogden as commander of the 17th district as soon as it is formed. The two names will be placed in nomination by the sixth district at the state convention next month.

Others, to be approved at the convention here were made as follows:

Mrs. Irene Holland, Flint, and Mrs. Vera Seelye, Mason, alternate committee women; and Mrs. Pearl Anderson, Royal Oak, treasurer. Other auxiliary officers are appointed by the committee woman.

Elections and nominations at the convention here were made at separate business meetings of the Legion and auxiliary preceding the convention. The Legionnaires met in the K. of P. hall, the auxiliary in the Community House.

others will be expected to have them within 30 days after July 1.

What the village license fees will be has not been determined. Village Manager Parry at the meeting Monday proposed rates of $3.00 for dogs and $1.50 for male dogs; but his suggestion was in opposition from Commissioner Fred L. Tucker, who said that "he saw no reason" for lowering the fees below the county rate of $4 and $2, especially during the first year when the cost of establishing the licensing machinery will be considerable.

That the new ordinance will contain an immunizing clause also developed from Monday night's discussion. The clause, which probably not be compulsory, but all dogs not immunized will be liable to seizure if found off their owners' premises. Dogs which have been immunized will probably be allowed to stray from the premises if under "reasonable control."

Neighbors carried him inside and called a physician.
