

SOCIETY IN BIRMGHAM AT THE HILLS

By MARJORIE LAINE PORTER

Popular Bride Honor Guest At Gay Affairs

Mrs. Richard Hart, who before her marriage on May 31 was Miss Frances Van Every, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Van Every of Pilgrimage road, has been the honoree at many charming affairs recently.

Miss Loretta Porritt of South Adams road entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Hart at the Book Cadillac Hotel Tuesday later taking her guests to the theater.

Miss Mary Hoffman of Cranbrook road and Miss Catherine Brown of Greenwood avenue were joint hostesses at a crystal show for Mrs. Hart held in the home of Miss Hoffman Thursday evening.

Mrs. Russell Fisher of Wimbledon drive entertained 12 guests at a bridge luncheon and miscellaneous shower for her niece, Mrs. Hart, Friday afternoon, and in the evening Miss Elizabeth Bray gave a kitchen shower to which she invited 14 guests.

Another miscellaneous shower was given for Mrs. Hart by the Misses Jean and Doris Hart at their home in Palmer Woods, Saturday evening.

Miss Jane Wall of Ferndale avenue also entertained a dozen guests at a lingerie shower held Monday evening, and Miss Jane Thrilly of Pilgrimage road honored Mrs. Hart with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hart's visit concluded Wednesday when she returned to her new home in Mansfield, O., to join Mr. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gilbreth, Jr., of Puritan road and their children, Marzan Man and Billy Hill, are planning to leave the state of the month to spend their summer home at Grand Haven Beach.

Miss Mary Pyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Pyle, Euclid avenue, will entertain 10 guests at a picnic supper on the grounds of her home, Saturday.

Former Residents Guests In Birmingham

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lipka and their daughter, Catherine, of Hammond, N. J., who formerly resided in Birmingham, arrived Tuesday evening to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Steelman of Floyd avenue. Mrs. Lipka is also in Birmingham to attend the Hill School reunion today.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipka are on their way to Lansing to attend the graduation of their daughter, Mary Louise, from Michigan State College. While in Birmingham they will be honor guests at a steak roast to be given jointly by Mr. and Mrs. Steelman and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson at their home on Adams road, Friday evening.

Among those invited to meet Mr. and Mrs. Lipka are Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Gilbery, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Schooley, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Parry, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Havelit, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Maunders, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. White, in Birmingham.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Deer, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Johnson of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Chapman of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Strand, Mr. and Mrs. George DeWolfe of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fisher of Detroit. The out-of-door dinner will also be given in observance of the birthdays of Mr. Steelman, Mr. Johnson, and Mrs. C. G. Johnson of Detroit.

Another party at which Mrs. Lipka was the honoree was a luncheon for 10 guests given by Mrs. Thomas Steelman at Adams road, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipka and their daughter will leave for Lansing Saturday.

Mrs. L. N. Pyle of Euclid avenue will be hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday for a group of friends from Detroit, including Mrs. Charles Crag, Mrs. Edward Chalfant and Mrs. William Summers.
