WINS HONORS AT CULVER

Thomas A. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Green, 144 Park road, ranked eighth in scholarship in class of 187 seniors which was graduated from Culver Military Academy Wednesday of last week. Green, who was captain of his company and figured prominently in athletics at the academy, plans to enter the University of Pennsylvania next fall.

Baptists Plan Picnic At Walnut Lake

The annual Sunday School picnic of the First Baptist Church will be held Tuesday at Walnut Lake. All members of the church and Sunday School planning to attend are asked to meet at the church at 10 A. M. David D. Anderson, superintendent of the Sunday School, is general chairman, and Allen McGirr is chairman of the committee on transportation. Automobiles and buses will be provided to take the picnickers to the grounds. The afternoon will be devoted to games and contests.

Among the junior members of St. James Episcopal Church who will attend the diocesan conference in Hillsdale next week are the Messes Sally Baker, Mary Pyle, Eleanor Bishop, Jean Ransier, Jean Daniels, Hermine McCormick, Betty Brown, Beth Ransier, Janette Brown, Beatrice Mattingly, Julia Kane, and Jane and Marion Fowler.

Among those from Birmingham who will attend the Michigan State College alumnae reunion at East Lansing Saturday, will be Mr. and Mrs. Emerson C. Brown of Floyd street and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Corryell of Arlington road. Mr. and Mrs. Corryell will go on to Grand Rapids following the reunion to spend the remainder of the week-end with friends.

The birthday party for members of the Past Noble Grand club of the Rebecca Lodge who have had birthdays during April, May and June, will be given next Wednesday, June 24, at a picnic at Dodge Park near Commerce. Plans are to leave at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. H. C. Murray of Henrietta street, assisted by Miss Ethel Hughes and Mrs. W. Hicks as hostess, entertained last Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Hazel Shall, Baldwin High School teacher who is soon to be married. The 20 guests spent part of the evening hemming tea towels and dust cloths for the guest of honor. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Russell Newman and Mrs. Margaret Melody of Flint. Miss Shall's mother, Mrs. W. Shall of Dexter, and Mrs. Mitchell and her daughter, Marion, of Pontiac. The house was decorated with roses and lilies.

Hassberger Chapter To Hold Reunion Tuesday

The annual home-coming night of Hassberger Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will be held next Tuesday at the Masonic Temple. Both the initiatory and DeMolay degrees will be conferred on a class of more than 35 candidates, the service beginning at 7:30 P. M. This meeting will mark the seventh anniversary of the chapter, as the first temporary weeks received June 23, 1924. Letters of acceptance have been received from each of the 11 Past Master Councilors of the chapter, all of whom will be able to attend for the first time in the chapter's history. The final meeting will be held in the Masonic Temple July 7. The month of July and August will be devoted to outdoor activities.

Officials Honor Mrs. Martha Wilson

Mrs. Martha Wilson of Townsend avenue was the honor guest at a surprise party given at her home last evening by members of the Municipal Club, township officials and employees. The occasion was a farewell to Mrs. Wilson, who is retiring to private life after nine years of public service in the office of the township. Mrs. Wilson achieved the distinction of being the first woman to hold the office of township treasurer. Following two successful terms in that capacity, she assumed other duties in the township office. After an evening of bride and buffet supper, the guests presented Mrs. Wilson with a silver server as a token of appreciation for her public service.

Mrs. Ray F. Foley was hostess at a bridge luncheon held at the Lochaven Country Club Wednesday. Mrs. Robert K. Greaves was in charge of the tournament for women golfers which preceded the luncheon.

Mrs. James Cobb of Oakland avenue, Mrs. Marie Whitney of Wallace street, and Mrs. Clara Kiebler of Royal Oak were guests Saturday noon at a dinner party given at the home of Mrs. Clarence McCosh of Detroit.
