FOOTBALLS

The race in the commercial division of the Y. M. C. A. football league continued close today. Scoring five corners in the opening frame, the delivery team led a commanding lead and held it through the remainder of the game. S. Anderson, Anderson's hurler, limited the South Enders to eight yardage and held them scoreless after the first inning.

Four Birmingham Club Netters Play In Both Tourney

Four members of the Birmingham Tennis Club will participate in the first annual invitational tennis tournament to be held at the Edgewood courts on the Clarence H. Booth estate on Lone Pine road.

The club's entrants in the singles matches are: Clarence S. Tseong and M. D. Corbin, while Clarence S. Warner and Osgood Williams will be the representatives in the doubles.

Their first round matches will be played on Friday afternoon and evening. George Coleman Booth and Mortimer A. Neff are in charge of the tourney.

FRANKLIN
Girl Scout Troop No. 1 spent Wednesday night of last week at the cottage of R. G. Adams at the Lake. The scouts roasted weiner and marshmallows in the evening and spent the night out of doors. This was the final meeting of the troop.

Miss Wilma Wood left Wednesday evening of last week for a few days stay at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Volney Miller in Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Curfin and Norman Currin spent Sunday at their cottage at Macey Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Spicer and their sons, Edward and Neil, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Spicer at Macey Lake.

Walter Luce returned from Napoleon Sunday for the Children's Day service at Franklin. He later returned to Napoleon for Mrs. Luce is staying with her mother who is ill. They are expected home today or Friday.

Members of the Church Circle will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. B. Wood. They will be served a pot-luck supper on the lawn.

In Detroit Theaters
Final arrangements have been made by Miss Bonstelle, manager and director of the Detroit Civic Theater, and Robert Henderson, Theater, and Robert Henderson, manager of Ann Arbor, to bring the production of "The Soldier" to the Civic Theater for two performances on Monday night, June 29 and Tuesday evening, June 30.

Tom Powers and Violet Hemming, both Broadway artists, will make the leading roles of Captain Bluntschli and Raina Petkoff, respectively, and Ernest Cossart will appear as Major Petkoff, of the brave Bulgarian army.

The play itself, "Arms and the Man" is one of the most popular and most humorous of Shaw's comedies. It is a light, romantic play filled with flashing wit, drama and charming atmosphere. The Strauss light opera called "The Chocolate Soldier" was taken on from "Arms and the Man."

Beginning Tuesday night, June 23, the second week of "Returned with Thanks" in which Miss Bonstelle is portraying the role in this coming season will start the production ending Sunday night, July 5.
