

ALUMNI HOLD FIRST REUNION

Frank Higby, '27, Named Head of Baldwin Graduate Body

class of 1927, was unanimously chosen president of the Baldwin Alumni Association on the occasion of the organization's first meeting held in Baldwin auditorium Friday evening. Other officers of the group, also elected unanimously, are as follows: Manley Bailey, '27, vice-president; Charlotte Wason, '27, secretary; and A. Stanley Ross, '26, treasurer. More than 100 alumni attended the dance, including 41 of the 1921 graduates who were honor guests at the reunion. The vaudiville program offered by the association before the meeting began included Richard Fleming, '29, who acted as master of ceremonies; William Spence, '27, and several others with whom gave several duets with ukelele accompaniment; Elmer E. Brice, '22, soloist; Jean Brooks, '21, who presented a tap dance novelty; and Mrs. Winifred Huntington Hart, '23, soloist. A. Stanley Ross, '25, was the accompanist.

Clarence Vilet, superintendent of Birmingham schools, and Melvin Hart, principal of Baldwin High School, were both called upon to speak. Each told of the treatment that becomes attached to the graduating classes as they leave high school and remarked upon the real good that could come from the successful continuation of an alumni association.

The decorations committee was composed of Walter Haack, Ralph Wilson, Virginia Taylor and Clifford Harper; reception and registration committee, Norma Martin, Margaret Haidane and Marjorie Shearer; entertainment committee, Virginia Taylor, Shirley Ross and Richard Fleming; and publicity committee, Rosemary Lamond, Patricia Chandler, Charlotte Wood and John Chandler.

Do You Fear 50?

Will 50 mean the threshold of old age for you?—will you be worn out, broken down, ready to quit? It all depends on how you prepare for your fifties. Old age is not a matter of years—it's health that really governs age. To those who wish health and activity in their fifties and sixties and seventies, we offer Mountain Valley Mineral Water.

Why Learn Touch Typewriting?

A Pontiac dentist says that all of his children will learn both shorthand and typewriting when they go to college as they can use them so extensively there. And of course for a stenographer, bookkeeper, or secretary, typewriting is a necessity.
