McLean, Edward B. Housell, further improvement of roads, William F. Morse, Herbert A. Fisher, F. C. Jennings, Capt. H. Towler, A. Des Rouviers.

FRANKLIN

Myron D. Bush, 60 years old, of the Thirteen-Mile road, died Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Maxine Fitzmaurice, of Church street, Franklin. Mr. Bush had been ill several weeks as a result of a paralytic stroke.

He was born in Farmington Township, May 8, 1850. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ogrin Bush, were among the first pioneers to settle in Oakland county. He married Ida Woodruff at Big Beaver in 1877, and the couple made their home on the Thirteen-Mile road during the greater portion of their lives. They had but one child, Mattie, with whom Mr. Bush has lived since the death of his wife.

Mr. Bush was a great favorite with the children of the neighborhood of his home, and in reminiscent moods could relate many interesting stories of his sister, Adella M. Wood, who now lives with her son, James H. Wood, at Franklin, and by six grandchildren, Leone, Clifford, Doris, Lillian, Harold, and Lawrence Huntington.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Drive a Twin-Ignition NASH

—It's a new experience!

ONE of the chief reasons for the flashing acceleration and smooth speed and power of Nash Eight-80 and Eight-90 models is aircraft-type Twin-Ignition. In each cylinder, two spark plugs placed opposite each other, fire at precisely the same instant. The highly compressed gas ignites at two points. It is burned more quickly, efficiently. The result—A more powerful explosion—instant responsiveness—noticeable gasoline economy.—The moment you step on the accelerator, you will realize the important difference Twin-Ignition makes. Let's go for a ride together—soon.
