MICHIGAN AMERICAN LEGION officials are trying to have the Legislature adopt a bill requiring that as respectful of the law as he seems to want the law. Meternature civities be taught all high shool pupils, morning officers to be, the law-enforting officers, which he hope that they will become better civities. Would be as Law-abiding as the average citizen—don't be attained merely by making encyclopedias of boys and girls good citizenship would never be attained merely by making encyclopedias of boys and girls good citizenship comes when the heart is enjoined to the head. We know some people who are in possession of great goods of parlamentary and other legislative information, yet who are poor citizens.

On The Life Of Man

Like to the falling of a star,
Or as the flights of eagles are,
Or like the fresh spring's gaudy hue,
Or aliver drops of morning dew,
Or aliver drops of morning the
Or like a wind that chafes the flood,
Even such is Man, whose borrowed light
Is straight called in and paid tonight.
The wind blows out, the bubble dies,
The spring entombed in autumn lies;
The dew dries up, the star is shot.
The flight is past—and man forget

Are You High-Hatting Yourself?

THERE YOU Go, wearing a High Hat. There you go, thinking a nobody can see it.

Nobody can see it.

You deny it hotly, with a hurr look. You say you're not wear thing a High Hat. You were rainbled anyhody in your life. You on my repasses to the firely with a way she may be not a sanok. And you can't stand people who wear a High Hat through life. They give you a pain.

Yes, I know. That's right. You don't High Hat other people, you hat's true. But I know you better than other people know you. I'm mailte sure of that. . . And I tell you that you're wearing a High Hat. You've been shuby your wond fream and desires. You've been High Hatting YoU, and that's as one dreams and desires. You've been High Hatting YoU, and that's file worst of all High Hatting.

You know what I mean. Don't say you don't. You wanted to
