Peterson Gets 60 Days For Being Disorderly; Mills Given 1 to 14 Years

William Peterson, 27 years old, 1008 Haynes street, Monday was given the option of a fine of $100 or 60 days in the Oakland County Jail, and his companion, Durwood Mills, 23 years old, 702 South Worth street, was sentenced to spend from one to 14 years at Ionia for violation of his parole following their arrest on disorderly charges Saturday night by Patrolmen Earl Moody and Robert Appell.

Arraigned before Judge Malcolm Hunt, Peterson, a metal hand saw worker, was said by the police to have had two quarts of liquor in his car, and was disorderly. Peterson pleaded guilty to the charge and chose the jail sentence.

Mills, who was on probation following a check raid purchased on somebody with $50 given him by the county poor commissioner for train fare to St. Louis, Mo., where he said he was to work on his father's farm, was the complainant. In making his probation report, Mills stated that his father needed enough money right to be hired his help but that he did not leave there, the police told the court.

FINDS HEALTH, CAREER IN WILDS

Beatrice Griscom and her dog, Biz Whang

Sixteen years ago Beatrice Griscom of California was told that she had but a few weeks to live. She borrowed $100 and established her home high in the San Diego mountains. Here she combatted disease and loneliness while she homesteaded the land and built a charming glen resort. She has built roads through her property, built a dozen or more cabins, installed plumbing and tennis courts, swimming pools and made rustic furniture. Today Miss Griscom has regained her health and made a business success of her venture, for people come from far places to see her, visit her and see her display of wild flowers in her annual Wildwood Glen show.

Confiscation

"We've got enough subdivided lots in the metropolitan area of Detroit to provide enough living space for a population as big as one-third of the United States. Taxation has been pyramided until it will eventually result in confiscation.

"Inside of 30 days, I'm hoping the property owners divisions of the Real Estate Boards of Birand Pontiac will sit down and talk things over. They should then appeal to the State tax commission and if they can't reach an agreement they should get the legislature to pass an act to review the acts of the State Tax Commission.

"Do you realize gentlemen, that there are less than a dozen states in the country that still have the township form of government? The township government should be abolished!

"A centralized form of county government such as has been established in other states is a vast step in the way of government. If you had a centralized committee to pass on all spending bond issues you wouldn't have that undue pyramiding of indebtedness on property.

"It's high time to the way all the other states who are so far ahead of us so far as government is concerned that there is no excuse for Wilson Guy Stark, secretary of the state tax commission, to say that Michigan's government is the most economical in the world. That's ridiculous. I'm not criticizing the officials personally, but I'll tell them this much, that if they don't economize by the help of God and the ballot, they won't be re-elected."
