In viewing the McKay matter, it is interesting to reflect upon the closing paragraph of a story in the Detroit News Lats Studies, written by James Sweinhart, a Birmingham resident. Reports Michagans and the Detroit News Lats Studies and Sweinhart, a Birmingham resident. Reports Michagans and the Sweinhart, a Birmingham resident in the Sweinhart, and the Sweinhart Michagans and the Sweinhart Michagans and the Sweinhart, and the Sweinhart Michagans and the Brucker administrations. Such a challenge should not go unheeded by Governor Brucker.

We have an idea that certain political camps are streams and the Sweinhart Michagans and the Brucker administrations is everything that Governor Brucker, directly or indirectly, does, will be seasons the sweinhard and the Sweinhard Michagans and the Sweinhard

McKay Challenges Brucker

Political life in the state of Michigan has been filled with increasing strike during the past yearespecially so within the last three months. Perhapthe necessity on the part of the general public to conserve their decreasing recourser, reflected mightilthese days in delinquent taxes, has caused the public official in general to take on a sombre color in the eyes of Mr. and Mrs. Peter People.

There is the Wayne County grand jury investgation; there is trobble on the surface of
