Many Dog Owners in This Vicinity Plan to Exhibit Breeds in Detroit Tomorrow

When the Detroit dog show opens in Convention Hall tomorrow, Miss Viola G. Proctor, of Wenhams, Mass., recently imported a pair of dogs that topped the list of exhibitors and followed this by giving best toy at New York. In the past they think this pair will take the place of the late Lita Emir, that won more toy groups and went best in more shows than any miniature dog in history.

Consolidated Excellent
Money secured from the sale of the bonds is to be used in liquidating the $100,000 issue which falls due April 10. Previous bonds were sold at 4 1/4 per cent, but the present financial market is such that the 4 1/2 per cent bid which is being received is considered a very flattering indication of the high regard in which the school is held by the personnel and for the financial soundness of the school district in general.

Seek to Legalize Heavy Borrowing
Educators Lobby in Lansing; Push Passage of Woodruff Bill; Manufacturers Fight

Supt. Clarence Vliet, of Birmingham, with school representatives from Royal Oak and other districts, which is now in the Lansing today in favor of the Woodruff bill, which is now in the Senate, to make it specifically legal for municipalities and school districts to borrow only the amount of their tax levy. Such a bill would strengthen the position of the school districts in the present financial crisis, and lower the rate of temporary financing that has to be resorted to, it is likely, according to Supt. Vliet, that school districts all over the country will be looking forward to such temporary financing for a period of two years.
