Educator, Former President See Individual Effort Needed For Advancement

Meivin C. Hart, Baldwin High School principal, and Harold P. Ellerby, past-president of the Birmingham Exchange Club, occupied the club's Tuesday noon program, each stressing the need for individual effort in the true growth of the ideals of the organization.

How Times Change!

Days Are Gone Forever When He Could Ride In An Airplane And Be Allowed To Like It, Reporter Finds

BY PETER There was a time when a newspaper reporter could go up in an airplane and his editor would be scandalized just to have him write about the ride.

them out." Pilot Larson said, "The idea is to toss them clear of the plane as they work." "But the tail You keep watching me, and every time I had my head you just let a bunch of them drop. It give the rudder a twist at the same time you won't be so apt to hit the plane."
