

FRANKLIN

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Facer and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wood were week-end guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. Arthur Mulder, near Ovid, Mich.

Memorial services will be held at the Franklin M. E. Church Sunday at 2:30 P. M. A program is being arranged by a committee from the Auxiliary Society of the Cemetery Association and the Ladies Aid Society. The Farmington High School band will furnish music, and will lead the march from the church to the cemetery. Rev. Walter Lacey will give the address. Several musical numbers will be given by the Junior choir. Miss Charlotte Wood was the guest of Miss Mildred Black of Albion over the week-end.

Members of the Friendly Circle will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Seba Bristol Friday afternoon. At a recent meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Franklin M. E. Church the members decided to hold a bee to clean the church today. All interested persons are invited to help with the work. Rev. Walter Lacey will give the address. Several musical

MUNICIPAL CLUB HOLDS MERRY MOCK WEDDING

Den Egbert marched to the stately measures of "Here Comes The Bride," Tuesday evening, when, costumed appropriately, he played the part in a mock wedding at a shower sponsored by the Municipal Club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Plumstead, who were recently married in Bowling Green, O.

Mrs. Plumstead was before her marriage Mrs. Margaret Thomas, the popular and able treasurer, and Mr. Plumstead is the brother of Charles E. Plumstead, the village treasurer.

The mock wedding was part of a celebration which included a buffet supper and bridge, held at the home of Mrs. Vera Schultz, on West Maple avenue.

The important role of the protective groom was ably interpreted by Miss Myrna Sewell. Everett Harris was strictly correct as maid of honor, and a pretty bride of bridesmaids included Ford Hutchison and Elmer May. The stalwart best man was impersonated by Miss Alice Upward. Kenneth Stokes made a dainty speech, and Miss Irene McDonough played the important role of ringbearer.

The bride's parents were represented by Fred Aldred who was the "fond mamma" and Miss Irene Hanley, who acted as the "stern papa." The wedding was typical, with musical selections to add to the solemnity of the occasion. Mr. Charles Plumstead sang a solo, and Miss Schultz played piano solo.

Lions Club Names Conclave Delegates

Walter Moreland, president of the Birmingham Lions Club, and Ray Beck were appointed delegates to represent the club at the annual Lions International convention in Toronto in July at the regular noon meeting yesterday in the Community House.

A report of the benefit stage show presented under the club's auspices last Thursday showed that approximately $100 was raised to be added to the club's defective vision fund.

The meeting was entertained with a program of magic presented by Clarence Cummings, Baldwin High School student, who received generous applause for his amazing variety of tricks performed in a manner which approached professional standards.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Porritt of south Adams avenue had as their guests Sunday for tea, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lithart of Waterloo, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil F. Baumann, of Shirley drive, with their children have returned from California where they spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Martin of Bennaville avenue entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pontiac of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Burnell of Drayton Plains.

Mrs. Arthur W. Fowler of Bennaville avenue, soprano, sang last Saturday evening for the formal and brilliant wedding of Miss Marion Reading, daughter of Mr. Richard Reading, who is City Clerk of Detroit, and Mr. Sher John J. Mack, which took place in the Statter ballroom. A string ensemble played the wedding march, which was followed by the song "O Promise Me" sung by Mrs. Fowler, accompanied by piano, cello, and violin. Governor Wilber M. Brucker and Mayor Frank Murphy were among the guests.

Mrs. Mary V. Unger and Mrs. Hollis P. Halladay were joint hostesses at a bon voyage luncheon in honor of Miss Marjory Unger of Fernside avenue, Saturday. Miss Unger will sail for Europe on the Empress of Australia, June 20, and will spend the summer in England and on the continent.
