Mrs. H. A. Pickert Outlines Plan For Convention

Mrs. Heinrich A. Pickert, chairman of the National American Legion Auxiliary convention, will be the honor guest at a charmingly appointed luncheon given by the Charles Edwards-Auxiliary Unit of Birmingham at the home of Mrs. E. W. Osborne, Pierce street, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Pickert outlined plans now under way for the American Legion Auxiliary convention to be held in September. Mrs. Fred W. Lyons of Detroit, second vice-chairman of the auxiliary committee and district committee woman for the convention, was also among the guests, as was Mrs. Ethel Smith of Marshall, who is the state president for the auxiliary. Receiving with Mrs. Osborne were her sister, Miss Dorothea York, Mrs. Joseph MacGregor, Mrs. H. H. Conson, Mrs. Betty A. Vaughan, Miss Agnes Baynes, Mrs. E. V. Meyers and Mrs. Gordon Bailey. At the table lunch, which was delightfully adorned with floral decorations, were Mrs. Leon Mix, Mrs. E. A. Burtraw, Mrs. E. C. Baynes and Mrs. Lillian Cook.

An informal dinner party in observance of the birthday anniversary of Mr. A. C. Utter, was given by Mrs. Utter of Southfield avenue, Monday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gaffill and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Fowler.

Mrs. William Mosher was hostess to four guests for luncheon and bridge at the Forest Lake Country Club last Friday.

Mrs. Douglas Brien of Vinewood avenue, a junior at the University of Michigan, has as her guests over the week-end, Mr. Robert Haskins of Winnetka, Ill.

Mrs. Crawford J. Lee, of Ridgedale road, had as guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walker of Lakewood, O.

Miss Mary Pyle will return from Fairfax Hall, Waynesboro, Va., Monday to spend the summer vacation period with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Pyle of Euclid road.

California Matron Guest of Parents

Mrs. W. E. McConnell, who before her marriage was Miss Marian Elizabeth Trumbull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Trumbull of Ridgedale road, arrived here last week from her home in Los Angeles, Cal. She will be the guest of her parents for a month.

ART and MUSIC

Paul Honore of Bloomfield Hills will be held before the tour next January. Mme. Johanna Gadski, Field of Art, before students at Southeastern High School, and on "Art As A Profession" before members of the Art Students League.

Miss Mildred Green, a Birmingham girl who has achieved notable success as an organist, and who was the guest organist at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, will take an examination in Detroit this week for membership in the American Guild of Organists. Miss Green, who is the organist at the Martha Holmes Memorial Church in Detroit, was a pupil of Dr. Francis L. York, director of the Detroit Institute of Musical Art.

Cal Frederick M. Alger, of Grosse Pointe, will be host at a dinner for members of the committee on arts and decoration for the American Legion convention to be held in September, at the Country Club, Grosse Pointe Farms, Friday.

Detroit will contribute two beautiful examples of 12th century Byzantine art, both of them close to gold, to the Exposition of Byzantine Art which is to be held in Paris this summer. One of these examples, representing the Baptism of Christ, is contributed by Robert H. Tannhill, and the other, sent by the Detroit Institute of Arts, represents the Transfiguration of Christ.

The American contributions are being collected under the auspices of the Art Association with the aid of Joseph Brumme of New York City, who is to send 25 objects.

Commander John Philip Sousa, "Grand old man of American music" and chief inspirator of high school musicians throughout the country, will be honored by these students during the coming season of the National High School Orchestra and Band Camp at Interlochen, Mich.

The occasion has been designated as "Sousa Day" and will be held prominently the latter part of July, though the exact date has not yet been settled. Chief features of the celebration will be an afternoon and evening concert, largely of Sousa compositions, under the baton of Mr. Sousa, by the National High School Orchestra and Band, and by a massed band, comprising bands from many sections of the country which will come here especially for the occasion. Fifteen thousand people are expected to turn out for these programs at Interlochen Bowl which is now being enlarged to accommodate the assemblage.

Leaders of school bands in many places have evinced interest in the "Sousa Day" program, and all those who have applied for acceptance have been read, O. C.

Two Detroit artists, widely different in their manner and in their subjects, will enjoy their first one-man exhibits this week. Each has won considerable praise for his plebe efforts, and the two shows should draw followings of note.

At the Gordon galleries, Sarkin Sarkisian, young local artist, who gained fame by winning one of the prizes in the recent Michigan Artists' exhibition at the Detroit Institute of Art, will have some two dozen easel-pieces, equally divided between oils and water colors. The subjects are mainly oriental and the style distinctly modern.

Why Learn Touch Typewriting?

A Pontiac dentist says that all of his children will learn both shorthand and typewriting before they go to college as they can use them so extensively there. And of course for a stenographer, bookkeeper, or secretary, typewriting is a necessity.
